

Second Sunday of Easter

/ YEAR A

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: 1 PT 2:2

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk,
that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

READING I: ACTS 2:42-47

An idealized vision of what life was like in the early communities.
The text highlights the four aspects of Christian life:
formation, communal life, the “breaking of the bread”
(Eucharist and other community meals), and prayer.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 118

“Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting.”
As noted for Easter Sunday, this individual song of thanksgiving becomes for us Jesus’ own celebration of the resurrection and our assurance that the “rejected stone” of the crucified Christ has become the “cornerstone” of our faith.

READING II: 1 PT 1:3-9

The reading begins by quoting a hymn that might be called “A New Birth.” The rest of the text praises those who hold onto a faith that does not require proof.

GOSPEL: JN 20:19-31

In John's version of the Easter narrative,
Jesus’ resurrection and ascension happen on that first Easter, as does the gift of the Holy Spirit sent on the apostles.
Thomas requires proof, but he is not blessed.
Jesus blesses those “who have not seen and have believed.”

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: JN 20:27

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails,
and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.

THIS EASTER, UNLIKE ANY OTHER

(The following is an excerpt from Archbishop Wilton Gregory's “What I Have Seen and Heard” Easter 2020 column for the Catholic Standard newspaper and website of the Archdiocese of Washington.)

“Jesus often described the kingdom of God
with images like the finding of the single sheep
who had strayed from the 99, or a measure of yeast planted in a portion of unleavened dough,
or the woman who lost one valuable coin
and then searched the entire house until she found it.
Each of those comparative stories has something to reveal about our experience of the Triduum this year as a treasure that has been removed from us
and once we can reclaim it,
we ought to value it even more intensely.
Some people may worry that our experience of Holy Week this year with livestreamed observances or home-bound services will diminish our desire to share in the church celebrations more festively assembled together next year. I doubt that, since the treasures of the Lord's stories about God's kingdom emphasized the intense joy of rediscovering
a treasure that had been misplaced.
Like all of you, I long for the time when our churches will be filled with folks who gather to celebrate our faith with palms, candles, choirs, oils, incense, darkness and fire. This year, we miss those moments when we annually use ordinary human elements to enter into the very mystery of the presence of God Himself.
Next year, please God, we will recover the joy
of being together for those festive ceremonies.”

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION BY ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish. If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form, which can be found at www.stjanedechantal.org, scan it, and email it to parish.office@stjanedechantal.org.

OUTREACH TO OUR MAPLEWOOD PARISHIONERS

A group of eight parishioners volunteered their time over Holy Week to contact 38 Maplewood Senior Living parishioners to connect them with practical and spiritual resources. Many of the Maplewood residents cannot leave their apartments due to the quarantine. They appreciated the calls and were very happy to be able to say a prayer with another parishioner by phone. We prayed for them and their intentions, as well as guided them to where they could watch Mass online or on TV, and let them know that if they need anything to reach out to us. Please let us know if you think anyone can benefit from a phone call from one of our parishioners or priests. Contact Carol Ramirez, Pastoral Council Chair, at 301-938-8364 or carolannramirez@gmail.com.

CRS RICE BOWL: DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME

either by check (write Rice Bowl on the memo line, and mail to St. Jane de Chantal, 9701 Old Georgetown Rd, Bethesda MD 20814) or give directly to Catholic Relief Services online (visit <https://www.crsricebowl.org> and click the green "Donate" button at the upper right of the screen).

STEWARDSHIP

*Jesus meets the need of each disciple.
To the fearful in the upper room, He speaks words of peace. To doubting Thomas, He provides the tangible proof of His resurrection. What do I need to become His disciple? What do I have to share that might meet someone else's need?*

OFFERTORY COLLECTION ENVELOPES

Thank you to all who have been mailing your contribution envelopes to the parish office. If you use the offering envelopes mailed to you each month, please use the white self-addressed envelope that comes with the packet to mail your contributions to the parish office. #### SECOND COLLECTION: CHURCH MISSION WITHIN THE US

The second collection next weekend, April 25/26, will be the annual collection for Church Missions within the United States. This collection supports mission dioceses in this country that are unable to offer their people the basic pastoral ministries of word, worship, and service without outside help. It may also give grants to other dioceses in the U.S. for particular projects, and to organizations and religious communities engaged in missionary work. Second, it provides vulnerable Black and Native American communities with funds for supporting and strengthening evangelization programs that would otherwise be in danger of disappearing among these communities. Thank you for your generosity.

POOR BOX

The Poor Box this weekend, April 18/19, will benefit Shepherd's Table, a resource center for the homeless and needy in Montgomery County, providing showers, counseling, homeless information, referrals and advocacy services, a clothes closet and an eye clinic, as well as other visiting professional services. POPE FRANCIS

Today's Gospel is the account of the Apparition of the Risen Christ to the disciples gathered in the Upper Room. Saint John writes that after greeting his disciples, Jesus says to them: "As the Father has sent me, even so I send you". After saying this, he makes the gesture of breathing on them and adds: "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven." This is the meaning of the mercy that is presented on the very day of Jesus' Resurrection as the forgiveness of sins. [...] This visible sign of his mercy brings with it peace of heart and joy of the renewed encounter with the Lord.
