

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
/ YEAR A

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 84: 10-11

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield;
and look on the face of your anointed one;
one day within your courts
is better than a thousand elsewhere.

READING I: IS 56:1, 6-7

The prophet indicates that after the return from Exile there were non-Jews who were allowed to participate in the life of the covenant people.

These, too, the prophet says, are beloved of God, because God's plan embraces all the nations.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 68

"O God, let all the nations praise you!"

This harvest prayer addresses God not only as the God of Israel but as the Lord of all the earth.

READING II: ROM 11:13-15, 29-32

Paul is still struggling with the inclusion of non-Jews in the community of Jesus (see Ordinary Time 19).

He knows that such inclusion should happen; after all, he is the "apostle to the Gentiles."

He is firm in his belief that "the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable" for the Jewish people.

He can only conclude that God has, in a sense, dumped everyone into the same pot, "that he might have mercy upon all."

GOSPEL: MT 15:21-28

One of Jesus' few recorded contacts with a non-Jew occurs in the area north of Galilee, in what is now Lebanon.

There he is corrected by a Canaanite woman.

When he haughtily announces that she is not worthy to share in the "food of the children," she responds that even dogs get to eat scraps under the table.

Jesus is converted by her faith, and he grants her request.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 130: 7

With the Lord there is mercy;
in him is plentiful redemption.

ST. JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL CHURCH

AUGUST 16, 2020

FORMED: THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND

FORMED is a digital platform of Catholic videos, talks, and ebooks, available at home, on the go, or from any internet connected device. Discover thousands of books, audio talks, movies, documentaries, and studies; there is something for every member of the family to help them grow closer to Christ and his Church.

OPENING THE WORD: 20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Since many of us have had the experience of praying when it seems as if our prayers are battering against a brick wall, this Gospel story of the persistent woman serves to increase our faith in the love and mercy of the Lord for each one of us. Listen to Mary Healy offer prayer and insights for this Sunday's readings.

STEALING HOME BY MIKE SWEENEY

Fans may be shut out of Nationals Park, but we can still hear a great baseball story that is relevant for all times. Starting from his account of an amazing play in which he stole home, Mike Sweeney draws parallels to living one's faith well to the end. Sweeney is a devout Catholic and sought after speaker, has been involved with Catholic Athletes for Christ, has appeared on EWTN's Life on the Rock, and has spoken at numerous Catholic venues.

MEMORIAL OF THE QUEENSHIP OF MARY

Next Saturday, August 22, the Church celebrates the Memorial of the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This feast wasn't proclaimed until 1954, but prayers of petition, and hymns of praise and veneration to the Queen of Heaven are rooted in Scripture. Two videos explore the origins of the Queenship of Mary: Mary, Queen Mother, and The Promised Mother, which examine the role played by the queen mothers of the Davidic Kingdom in the Old Testament and how they point forward to Mary's role as Queen Mother. You will also see Mary's queenship alluded to in Matthew's genealogy, which opens the entire New Testament. Read Pope Pius XII's encyclical, Ad Caeli Reginam, in which he proclaims the Queenship of Mary, and seeks to "enkindle a more fervent devotion towards her" with this feast.

FINANCIAL AND FOOD ASSISTANCE DURING THE PANDEMIC

During this public health and economic crisis, many of us face financial burdens trying to keep up with mortgages, rent, and utilities. In addition, we can sometimes find monthly budgets falling short of the necessary funds even for basics such as food and medicine. But there is hope right in our community. St. Jane de Chantal parishioners are extraordinarily compassionate and generous, and through their ongoing support of the parish's St. Martin's Cloak Guild, the guild can provide support for parishioners in short-term need. If you are nearing a crisis in finances or food or medicine, or if you know of friends in the parish who are in crisis, St. Martin's Cloak can help. Please consider reaching out to Father Giese or the St. Martin's Cloak Guild whenever the need arises. All communication and services are strictly confidential. The parishioners of St. Jane de Chantal graciously support St. Martin's Cloak, and the guild is honored to support our parish. Reach out in confidence with a note or call to the parish office, or to the St. Martin's Cloak Chair, Paul Eder, at 301-956-6273. St. Martin's Cloak, with support from our parish, is here to help.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA BANKRUPTCY

Boy Scouts of America has filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy in order to restructure its nonprofit organization and pay sexual abuse survivors who were abused during their time in scouting; this includes Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, or any entity or activity associated with scouting. St. Jane de Chantal Parish, having a charter granted by the BSA, received a notice asking the parish to notify anyone who may have been involved with BSA about the bankruptcy case. Information and materials about the bankruptcy case and the deadline to file claims can be found at www.officialbsaclaims.com or by calling 1-866-907-2721.

2020-2021 CCD

We are excited to open registrations for our CCD program for the coming year 2020-2021. You can expect major changes due to the restrictions currently in place. We regret that one such change is that the Faith of Our Toddlers program (FOOT) will not be able to be offered this year. We fully expect that program to resume in the future. Our plan is to have grades 1-8 meet in person once per month on Tuesday evenings from 5:30-6:45 pm in Caulfield Hall, and the Narthex or the lower level of church. Safety will be very much the priority and temperature checks will be done on adults and students before each class. Each student and adults will be required to wear a mask or face covering the entire time they are in the building. The students will be socially-distanced and only two classes will meet each week in separate spaces on a rotating basis (for example, grades 1 and 2 will meet on the the first Tuesday of the month, grades 3 and 4 will meet on the second Tuesday of the month, and so on). An email along with a detailed letter attached from the Office of Religious Education to all parents will be going out soon with many more specific details. Please visit the parish website to sign your children up for our Faith Formation program.

RELIGION TEACHERS

Adult volunteers (parents and others) are needed to teach religion to our parish children who attend public school. Volunteers are also needed assist with various protocols to ensure the safety of our children while they are here on campus. Experience is not necessary – training provided! The Department of Life issues also provides links to resources to help give you the answers.

FREE SUMMER LEARNING RESOURCES FOR K—8

The archdiocesan Catholic Schools Office has created an online summer learning resource page for rising kindergarten through rising grade eight. POPE FRANCIS

“This Gospel episode [of an encounter with a Canaanite woman] helps us to understand that we all need to grow in faith and fortify our trust in Jesus. He can help us to find our way, when we have lost the compass of our journey; when the road no longer seems flat but rough and arduous; when it is hard to be faithful to our commitments. It is important to nourish our faith every day, by carefully listening to the Word of God, with the celebration of the Sacraments, with personal prayer as a ‘cry’ to him — ‘Lord, help me!’ — and with concrete acts of charity toward our neighbour.”

Pope Francis, Angelus,
 St. Peter's Square
 20 August 2017.
