IN OUR PARISH

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish. If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form and drop it in the collection basket when you attend Mass.

USED CLOTHING DROP-OFF SHED

St. Jane de Chantal Parish has contracted with a new vendor to provide a used clothing drop-off shed. Items accepted: all clothing, sneakers, belts, purses, blankets, sheets, pillowcases, drapes, and stuffed toys. Help keep your donation clean and dry by placing items in plastic bags. Items not accepted: rags, fabric scraps, toys, and household goods; understand that these items are expensive to dispose of. The accepted items will not be cut up or shredded, and will benefit people in the U.S. and in third-world countries. Our parish will receive a stipend for the accepted items, which will be used to benefit the poor in our community.

THAT MAN IS YOU

The Spring semester begins Saturday, January 9 in Caulfield Hall. Light breakfast and fellowship from 6:30-7:00 am followed by program material and discussion from 7:00-8:00 am. (TMIY), a program designed for actively parenting fathers. It is never too late to start the program. The topic for January 9 will be "To Hear the Voice of God." LENTEN BOOK PROGRAM

This Lent, St. Jane is partnering with the Dynamic Catholic Institute (dynamiccatholic.com) to give a free copy of Rediscover Catholicism by Matthew Kelly to every family at our parish. This book discusses the essence of authentic Catholic spirituality and addresses some of the most important questions we face today both as individuals and as a Church. All are invited to read this book and engage in weekly discussions guided by Fr. Giese every Tuesday evening during Lent, beginning February 16, at 7:30 pm in the main church. Books will be handed out after each Mass on Ash Wednesday (February 10) and on the weekends of February 6/7 and 13/14. Make the most out of your Lenten experience this year by walking with your St. Jane community on this six-week spiritual journey to a deeper relationship with Christ and His Church.

On January 3, the SMASH theme is "Are you Cereal?" and we will have all sorts of cereals for you to sample and games involving cereal. On January 10, we join with Pope Francis in exploring the Year of Mercy. Our Theme is "Mercy" and the important things we can do to harness the power of God. On January 24, we play "Monster Golf" in the afternoon and then attend the 5:00 pm Mass. More details to come.

CATHOLIC BIBLE STUDY: THE PROPHETS

If we consider that God is the Divine Bridegroom and the Church is his Bride, then the prophets can be seen as "spiritual marriage counselors." They afflict the comfortable and comfort the afflicted, calling us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today, as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom. Join us for "The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy," a ten-week Bible study on Thursday mornings at 9:00 am beginning February 4, or a second session to be held on Sunday nights at 6:15 pm beginning February 7. Cost for the course is $25.00. To register for either session, please contact Sally Daniel at 301-530-1640 or sally.daniel@stjanedechantal.org.

FIND THE PERFECT GIFT

This week we celebrate the final days of the Christmas season ending on the Solemnity of the Epiphany (January 6). As we recall the Three Magi bringing gifts to the infant Jesus we are reminded that each of us has gifts and presence to offer Jesus each day. As you are making New Year's resolutions be resolved to focus more on your relationship with God in prayer and in using your gifts to help others this year. Visit www.FindthePerfectGift.org for faith reflections and visit your parish website to learn more about opportunities for weekly prayer and how to get more involved in your community.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY REFLECTION

"The watchword for this week is 'belonging.' There's something in our picture of the feast that really brings home the idea of including everybody. We see the three wise men, coming to Bethlehem, and to us, as wayfarers from outside the Jewish people. With Christ's birth, everybody is invited to come in. In church this Sunday, think about all the people all over the world who are in church with you. They may be in the Philippines, or in Kenya, or in Mexico, but really we are all sharing in the same meal. They're here with us, even if we can't see them." Listen to the rest of this reflection from Fr. Frank Wright at mercy.adw.org.

CATHOLIC BUSINESS NETWORK

The Catholic Business Network of Montgomery County invites you to their January Networking Breakfast on Friday, January 8, 7:30-9:00 am, at Timpano's Italian Chophouse (12021 Rockville Pike). The cost is $20 for pre-registered guests and $30 on the day of the event. Register at www.cbnmc.org.

The archdiocesan Office of Permanent Diaconate Formation will begin a new cycle of recruitment and preparation of men for the diaconate. The initial selection process for this class will begin with a series of "Come and See" events at various parishes around the archdiocese in January-March 2016. Local "Come and See" events for potential applicants and their wives will take place from 7:00 -9:00 pm on Wednesdays, January 13 (Archdiocesan Pastoral Center, Hyattsville, MD), February 17 (St. Andrew the Apostle, Silver Spring, MD), and March 16 (Archdiocesan Pastoral Center, Hyattsville, MD). RSVP to Diane Biggs (301-853-5345, biggsd@adw.org). POPE FRANCIS

"Where is my faith?
 In power, in friends,
 in money?
 It is in the Lord!
 The legacy that God promised to leave us is of a humble and poor people who trust in the name of the Lord. Humble because it knows it sins; poor because it is attached to the riches of God; trusting in the Lord because it knows that only He has its good at heart."

Pope Francis, homily, 15 December 2015,
 Casa Santa Marta.
