Passio Christi, conforta me.
O bone Jesu, exaudi me.
Intra tua vulnera absconde me.
Ne permittas me separari a te.
Ab hoste maligno defende me.
In hora mortis meae voca me.
Et iube me venire ad te,
Ut cum Sanctis tuis laudem te,
In saecula saeculorum. Amen

Soul of Christ, be my sanctification;
Body of Christ, be my salvation;
Blood of Christ, fill all my veins;
Water of Christ's side, wash out my stains;
Passion of Christ, my comfort be;
O good Jesus, listen to me;
In Thy wounds I fain would hide;
Ne'er to be parted from Thy side;
Guard me, should the foe assail me;
Call me when my life shall fail me;
Bid me come to Thee above,
With Thy saints to sing Thy love,
World without end. Amen.

During this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy, there are two ways in which we can experience mercy: we can receive mercy, and we can give mercy. Most of us understand that we can receive mercy by attending Mass and by practicing the sacrament of reconciliation, but many of us do not know that we can also give mercy. This can be accomplished by engaging in a spiritual work of mercy. The spiritual works of mercy have long been a part of the Christian tradition, appearing in the works of theologians and spiritual writers throughout history. Just as Jesus attended to the spiritual well-being of those he ministered to, these spiritual works of mercy guide us to "help our neighbor in their spiritual needs." There are seven spiritual works of mercy. They are:

Counseling the doubtful: Everyone has moments of doubt in their faith journey. Nevertheless, we should always remember that "Christ is the way, the truth, and the life," and turn to him along our way.

Instructing the ignorant: At first, the word "ignorant" seems pretty ignorant itself. Think of "uneducated" instead of "ignorant." This act allows us to offer knowledge about our faith and be open to talking with others about our beliefs. There is always something more to discover about our faith.

Admonishing the sinner: Do not judge, but be supportive in helping others find their way and correct their mistakes. Together we can learn to walk more closely with Christ.

Comforting the sorrowful: Be open to listening and comforting those who are dealing with grief. Even if we are not sure of the right words to say, our presence can make a big difference.

Forgiving injuries: Forgiving others is difficult at times because we do not have God's limitless mercy and compassion. But Jesus teaches us that we should forgive as God forgives, relying on him to help us show others the mercy of God

Bearing wrongs patiently: Do not be bitter about wrongs done against you. Place your hope in God so that you can endure the troubles of this world and face them with a compassionate spirit.

Praying for the living and the dead: Prayer is one of the most powerful ways we can support others. Joining together in prayer for the living and the dead entrusts us all into God's care.

If you are looking for ways to offer one or all of these spiritual works of mercy, our parish provides plenty of opportunities. Through Liturgical Ministries, Social Justice Ministries, and Community Ministries, there is something for everyone!

In addition to spiritual works of mercy, there are corporal works of mercy, which we will discuss next week.

IN OUR PARISH

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish:

♦ Matthew Bernardo ♦ Katherine Vojtasko

If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form and drop it in the collection basket when you attend Mass.

ADVENT GIVING TREE

The St. Jane de Chantal Sodality wishes to say "thank you" to all of our parishioners who once again made the 2015 Advent Giving Tree a huge success. Because of your generosity, we were able to deliver over 900 gifts to 15 charities and two nursing homes. The grateful messages we have received from these institutions are on display in the Gathering Space of church. Please look for the poster with these notes to see what joy you brought to so many people during the holiday season.

ECUMENICAL CELEBRATION FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

This Sunday January 31, St. Jane de Chantal and St. Louis de France parishes will join together with neighboring Christian congregations for our area's annual Christian Unity Service, to be held at 3:00 pm at Saint Elizabeth Catholic Church (917 Montrose Rd, Rockville). The homilist will be the Rev. Kathryn Woodrow, Pastor of Faith United Methodist Church. Special music will be provided by the combined choirs of the participating churches and the Trinity Lutheran Handbell Choir. A freewill offering will benefit Mid-County United Ministries. Reception and fellowship will follow the service. For further information, contact Brother Ed Adams at 301-530-1528.

THAT MAN IS YOU

The Spring semester has begun, but it is never too late to start the program. Come Saturday mornings in Caulfield Hall for light breakfast and fellowship from 6:30-7:00 am, followed by program material and discussion from 7:00-8:00 am. Topic for February 6: "A Dialogue with God." For more information, contact Tim Gleeson (240-338-2899).

LENTEN BOOK PROGRAM

This Lent, St. Jane is partnering with the Dynamic Catholic Institute (dynamiccatholic.com) to give a free copy of Rediscover Catholicism by Matthew Kelly to every family at our parish. This book discusses the essence of authentic Catholic spirituality and addresses some of the most important questions we face today both as individuals and as a Church. All are invited to read this book and engage in weekly discussions guided by Fr. Giese every Tuesday evening during Lent, beginning February 16, at 7:30 pm in the main church. Books will be handed out after each Mass on Ash Wednesday (February 10) and on the weekends of February 6/7 and 13/14. Make the most out of your Lenten experience this year by walking with your St. Jane community on this six-week spiritual journey to a deeper relationship with Christ and His Church.

"VOCATIONS TREE" COMING SOON

Here's something simple you and your family can do for Lent! Next weekend, February 6/7, you will see a "Vocations Tree" in the gathering space with cards hanging on it. Each card has information about a seminarian of the Archdiocese of Washington. We invite you to choose a card (or more than one!) and pray for that seminarian each day during Lent. Who knows? You could be praying for a future pastor of our parish!

SODALITY FASHION SHOW

Today in the back of Church, Sodalists are handing out invitations to the Sodality Fashion Show and Luncheon being held March 5, at 12:00 noon, at Columbia Country Club. Please take home an invitation as tickets will be sold next weekend, February 6/7 after all Masses. For more information, contact Kathy Kitzinger (301-493-6248 or kckitzinger@gmail.com) or Maureen George (maureenennisgeorge@gmail.com).

The morning will start off with a welcome and demonstration of the instrument, followed by an inspection of several different kinds of organ pipes. After the demonstration, the kids will have a chance to play on the new organ (we especially invite students who are taking piano lessons to bring a piece that they know well). A pizza lunch and movie will end the event in Caulfield Hall. Space is limited; sign up by emailing Russell at russell.weismann@stjandedechantal.org A $5 donation per child is suggested to offset the costs of lunch and materials.

POPE FRANCIS

"[W]hen Christians of different Churches listen to the Word of God together and seek to put it into practice, they make important steps towards unity. It is not only the call which unites us, but we also share the same mission to proclaim to all the marvelous works of God.
