MUSIC AND LITURGY NOTES

There are two different categories of music: presentational and participatory. Church music, by its very nature, is participatory music. The moment church music becomes presentational, its purpose has failed. Recently, the Parish Council has recommended ways to “enhance” and diversify the liturgical experience at St. Jane’s. One of their directions is aimed at contemporizing the music at Mass. I hesitate to use the terms “traditional” and “contemporary” because there are various stigmas and stereotypes associated with them in regards to church music. For the purpose of this discussion and of the understanding of the parish council, “traditional” church music will mean common hymnody and music played by the organ, while “contemporary” church music will denote popular styled music played by the piano and other instruments. Since a few of our neighboring parishes offer an “alternative” weekend Mass with contemporary church music, I have been asked to experiment with this paradigm at St. Jane. One big difference between us and our neighboring parishes is that we will rely mainly on dedicated and competent parishioners to volunteer as musicians to make this effort successful in lieu of paid professionals.

In consideration of the Parish Council’s request, I presented the following four questions:

Who is asking for contemporary or alternative music? Right now, the Parish Council has asked for an alternative Mass with contemporary music.

What does the Parish need? The parish needs more active participation from the congregation. If contemporary music inspires more active participation in the Mass, then it will have proven itself to be a need.

What do we want to achieve? By fostering an alternative Mass with strictly contemporary music, we aspire to achieve a more enthusiastic and prayerful worship experience. This attempt is especially targeted toward engaging more youth involvement.

How will we know it is working? This is not about Mass attendance. All of our Masses are already very well attended. The assessment of having an alternative Mass with contemporary music will be evaluated in two ways. First, is there enhanced congregational participation? And secondly, is there more involvement in parishioners participating in contemporary music ministry as choir members, cantors, or instrumentalists? In order to meet these two goals, we need enthusiastic participation from the pews, and volunteers’ time and talent as music ministers.

If we miss meeting the goals of the Parish Council’s request and if my questions are left unanswered, then our music ministry has the unintended chance of becoming presentational rather than participatory. That is not the result that we want. It is my philosophy that the Parish needs a broad offering of musical styles, which is what I aim for with the music scheduled at each of our weekend Masses. However, if an “alternative” Mass with only contemporary music helps our parishioners to enhance their faith in worship, then trying this at St. Jane would be worthwhile. Aside from contemporary music, now that I have been in your parish for two and a half years, I would also like to bring up what I consider to be a greater and more urgent need, which is the fact that we are completely lacking a children’s music ministry. Caution was brought up at the Parish Council meeting that not all youth are attracted to contemporary music. It is my professional desire to put my effort into training our youngest parishioners in music ministry. That is a real and desperate need for us; a substantial children’s music ministry is successful in offering proven results to both the participants and parishes. If someone were to do an outside needs assessment of our music ministry, this would be at the top of their list.

Following the recommendations of the Parish Council, for the next few weeks, we will experiment with the request for an alternative Mass with contemporary music at the Sunday noon and 5:00 pm Masses. In order for this kind of change to be successful, we will need your help as outlined above.

I will end this column to address the concerns that many of you have in regards to the role of the pipe organ. Most parishioners love our new organ, and both Andrew Vu and I are honored and privileged to play it for you. Many of you offered great financial gifts so that the instrument could be built. You did this knowing that its music would be a lasting manifestation of your sacrificial giving in worship and song. It is beyond gratifying to witness our parishioners lift up their voice in sung prayer with the organ and I always feel the presence of those to whom the organ honors in memory. A few parishioners have mentioned rather disparaging comments about the organ over the past few years; however, I find their complaints more pointed towards me as the organist rather than the instrument itself. The organ provides us with beautiful music. It is not my intent to diminish its presence during Mass and I hope to find ways to continue to use the organ at the noon and 5:00 pm Masses during this time of experiment so that those of you who gave so generously for its creation can continue to hear it make beautiful music.

I would value your feedback. You can email russell.weismann@stjanedechantal.org.

LENT IN OUR PARISH

VOCATIONS TREE

Please take a moment today to stop by the “Vocations Tree” in the Gathering Space of church. This year’s tree has cards for all 74 of the seminarians of the Archdiocese of Washington. Please choose one or more cards and pray for that seminarian each day during Lent. Make it a beautiful offering to the Lord this Lent to pray for those the Lord calls to give their lives in service of His Church in our archdiocese.

LENTEN BOOK PROGRAM

This Lent, St. Jane is partnering with the Dynamic Catholic Institute (dynamiccatholic.com) to give a free copy of Rediscover Catholicism by Matthew Kelly to every family at our parish. This book discusses the essence of authentic Catholic spirituality and addresses some of the most important questions we face today both as individuals and as a Church. All are invited to read this book and engage in weekly discussions guided by Fr. Giese every Tuesday evening during Lent, beginning February 16, at 7:30 pm in the main church. Books will be handed out after each Mass on Ash Wednesday (February 10) and on the weekends of February 6/7 and 13/14. Make the most out of your Lenten experience this year by walking with your St. Jane community on this six-week spiritual journey to a deeper relationship with Christ and His Church.

ASH WEDNESDAY

This Wednesday, February 10, is Ash Wednesday. Masses will be celebrated at 8:00 am, 11:00 am and 7:30 pm. Ashes will be distributed during each Mass.

FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence (only one full meal for those age 18-59, and no meat for those age 14 and above). All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence for those age 14 and above. On weekdays during Lent, there is no obligation to fast, however, voluntary acts of self-denial are recommended.

CRS RICE BOWL: HUNGERING FOR THE JOURNEY

Join our parish community—and nearly 14,000 Catholic communities across the United States—in a life-changing Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl. Pick up your family's rice bowl from the Gathering Space of church beginning As Wednesday, and don't forget to download the CRS Rice Bowl app! Remember, what you give up for Lent changes lives.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The public celebration of the Way of the Cross will be held every Friday during Lent (February 12 - March 18) at 7:30 pm, and on Good Friday (March 25) at 12:00 noon and 3:00 pm. All will take place in the church.

CONFESSIONS

This Lenten season, each Catholic parish in the Archdiocese of Washington will have confessions available every Wednesday evening (except Ash Wednesday) from 6:45-8:00 pm. If you have been reluctant to come to the sacrament, have been away for some time or just found it difficult to get to a Saturday afternoon confession time, this is a wonderful opportunity to reconnect with Christ and His Church. Learn more at www.the-light-is-on.org. Confessions are also heard at St. Jane each Saturday afternoon, 3:45-4:45 pm.

POPE FRANCIS

“The goal of holiness that God gives to his children, gives to the Church, comes through the humiliation of his Son who lets himself be cursed, who lets himself be borne on the Cross, unjustly. [I ask] of the Lord, for each of us, for all the Church, the grace of humility, but also the grace of understanding that it is impossible to be humble without humiliation.”

Pope Francis, Homily,
 1 February 2016,
 Casa Santa Marta.
