The sessions will be held at 7:00 pm at the Seton Center on the following dates: April 25 (Maximillian Kolbe), May 11 (Mother Teresa), and May 23 (Louis and Zelig Martin, parents of St. Therese of Lisieux). Come explore and discuss ways in which the lives of these holy individuals relate to our lives and how we can grow closer to God.

IN OUR BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL

Check out the St. Jane de Chantal School website at www.dechantal.org to get information on admissions, see what each classroom is studying, and more.

GUEST SPEAKER FROM BROADWAY

The 6th grade was thrilled to have a special visitor straight from Broadway on April 4. James Brown Orleans, who has played Banzai in The Lion King for the past 14 years, came to watch a rehearsal, provide feedback to the students, inspire them with his story, take photos, and sign autographs. He was very inspirational to all! Mark your calendars for the 6th grade play on April 28 and 29 at 7:30 pm.

SECOND GRADE FIELD TRIP

The second grade class took a step back in time to visit a one room schoolhouse in Poolesville. They lived a typical school day as a child back in pioneer times, wearing the typical dress and learning in the one room school house. The boys gathered wood for the fire and the girls swept the floors. Everyone claimed it was the "best field trip ever!"

FOURTH GRADE FIELD TRIP

The fourth grade class visited the Air and Space Museum in Washington, D.C. this past week to learn about space! The children visited the planetarium, the simulators, and learned about the history of flight from the Wright Brothers to space exploration in the 21st century.

IN OUR ARCHDIOCESE

For more information on education, family, youth, social concerns, & other events in the Archdiocese of Washington, visit www.adw.org. The website also has a media center, which includes social media tools, a YouTube channel, and apps.

REFLECTION ON THE YEAR OF MERCY

Visit the Sick: "When it was evening, they brought him many who were possessed by demons, and he drove out the spirits by a word and cured all the sick, to fulfill what had been said by Isaiah the prophet: 'He took away our infirmities and bore our diseases'" (Mt. 8:14-18). Over and over Jesus heals and comforts the sick, and he calls us to do the same. The great gift—and challenge—of the works of mercy is that in performing them we are both sharing in Christ's work on earth and encountering Christ himself. He reminds us, "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Mt. 25:40). Learn more about comforting the sick and honoring the dignity of life in sickness and death at mercy.adw.org.

PREPARING WELL AT CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

When there is a death in the family, major decisions need to be made quickly, usually by people who are grief-stricken. Yet, CCAW Cemetery Managers note the presence of some peace among families whose loved ones have prepared well and made cemetery arrangements before time of death. This preparation is an act of hope and faith in the life to come. It's a way of taking care of family and friends then by making decisions for them now. Families can gather preliminary information on cemetery property prices, choices for memorialization and other options by visiting the Archdiocese of Washington Catholic Cemetery website at www.ccaw.org. The website also provides resources on hospice care, bereavement services, and end-of-life issues.

STEWARDSHIP

Paul and Barnabas encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached.

We, too, may meet with mixed reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God.

But, the Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.
