MUSIC & LITURGY NOTES

As many of you know, before arriving at St. Jane's nearly three years ago I had the honor of being the Associate Music Director at the National Shrine. Working at the Shrine was a faced paced job nearly comparable to working long hours as a lawyer at a top law firm or as a resident in an emergency room. It was a great opportunity though and I often reflect on my time there. One of the most demanding tasks placed upon me was to play daily Mass. There are six daily Masses at the Shrine, four of which have music. What made these Masses so special is the fact that the congregation led the music. With the exception of solemnities, there was no cantor at the daily Masses and so it was upon the assembly to sing the hymns and service music. I was astounded at the participation, especially coming from those gathered at the morning Masses (8am and 8:30... no time to stretch one's legs between those Masses). It gives not only the organist, but all who are assembled, great joy to worship within an actively engaged community. This summer, as we lead our Sunday 8am Mass from a cantor-led liturgy to a congregation-led liturgy, I pray that everyone can adopt a spirit of participation. The liturgy will be extremely "user-friendly." Here are some insights: The first hymn will be announced by the lector. We will sing two stanzas (or three if the text calls for it). The Gloria will be recited (the text is on the front inside cover of your hymnal). Use your hymnal to follow along with the readings and join in speaking the psalm response, which will be read by the first lector (since the psalm coincides with the first reading). For the Gospel Acclamation, the organ will play the melody once through, then the entire congregation is invited to join in singing. The priest or deacon may recite the verse, and if so, the congregation will repeat with another sung refrain. Offertory will be a time of personal prayer and reflection on the readings and homily. The Holy, Holy, Holy and Lamb of God will be sung to familiar settings. Please sing along with the organ, which, like the human voice of a cantor, can lead the melody. The Memorial Acclamation and Great Amen will be recited; please follow the priest, who will lead both. During the Communion distribution, there will be additional time for prayer and reflection, and after the final blessing and dismissal, the organ will play some music as the priest and ministers process out of the church. Please remain in your pew until the procession has ended. I assure you that this simpler style of liturgy will be no less prayerful, no less reverent, and no less engaging than our other liturgies. The most noticeable change might be the added periods of silence at various points during the Mass. The English novelist and philosopher, Aldous Huxley once wrote, "[it is] silence, that which comes nearest to expressing the inexpressible." Worship is the most important activity, the central focus of our Christian lives as individuals and our life together as people of God. No matter what the style of liturgy, we all play an important role in worship.

These servers are to be congratulated for their exemplary ministerial service. They will be recognized at their scheduled Masses by wearing the cross over their alb, an honor awarded to them as Head Servers. All altar servers are eligible to become a Head Server. Twice per year, the parish priests will review the roster of altar servers and make the distinction based on attendance and attention to the ministry. The parish is most grateful for the continued assistance and enthusiasm of all servers. We thank them and their families for their dedication to ministry.

STEWARDSHIP

Like Nathan in today’s first reading, we sin when we begin to feel entitled and act as if what we have is ours by right, when we forget that everything we have is an unmerited gift from God.

But God is gracious and forgiving — even when we use His gifts wrongly or squander them thoughtlessly — if, like Nathan, we confess our guilt and ask His pardon.

PUT YOUR CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES ON A PERMANENT “SUMMER VACATION” AND MAKE THE SWITCH TO E-GIVING.

By embracing this practice, you will simplify your giving and help provide our parish with consistent support.

This is especially important in the summer months, when families may be out of town and St. Jane de Chantal does not receive their envelopes.

It is easy for people to forget to catch up once they are back, and our weekly offertory can fluctuate as a result — making it harder to predict how much we will have to sustain our year-round ministries. Making the switch is easy: You can enroll online at www.faithdirect.net or pick up a paper enrollment form in the gathering space of church.

Our parish code is MD30.

“Adoption is a very generous way to become parents. I encourage those who cannot have children to expand their marital love to embrace those who lack a proper family situation. They will never regret having been generous. Adopting a child is an act of love, offering the gift of a family to someone who has none. It is important to insist that legislation help facilitate the adoption process, above all in the case of unwanted children, in order to prevent their abortion or abandonment. Those who accept the challenge of adopting and accepting someone unconditionally and gratuitously become channels of God’s love. For he says, ‘Even if your mother forgets you, I will not forget you’ (Is 49:15).”

Francis, apostolic exhortation, Amoris laetitia 179.
