Verbe egal au Tres-Haut, notre unique esperance,
Jour eternel de la terre et des cieux,
De la paisible nuit nous rompons le silence:
Divin sauveur, jette sur nous les yeux.

Repands sur nous le feu de ta grace puissante;
Que tout l'enfer fuie au son de ta voix;
Dissipe ce sommeil d'une ame languissante
Qui la conduit a l'oubli de tes lois!

O Christ! sois favorable a ce peuple fidele,
Pour te benir maintenant assemble;
Recois les chants qu'il offre a ta gloire immortelle,
Et de tes dons qu'il retourne comble.

Word, equal to the Almighty, our only hope,
Eternal light of the earth and the Heavens;
We break the peaceful night's silence,
Divine Saviour, cast your eyes upon us!

Spread the fire of your mighty grace upon us
May the entire hell flee at the sound of your voice;
Disperse from any slothful soul the drowsiness
Which induces it to forget your laws!

Oh Christ, look with favour upon this faithful people
Which has now gathered to bless you.
Receive its singing, offered to your immortal glory,
And may it leave with the gifts you have bestowed upon it!

MUSIC AND LITURGY NOTES

At the 10am Mass this weekend, the Parish Choir will sing the anthem, Cantique de Jean Racine, composed by Gabriel Fauré. The French text was written by the dramatist, Jean Racine, and published in 1688 in Hymnes traduites du Bréviaire romain. It is a paraphrase of a hymn for Tuesday matins from the breviary, Consors paterni luminis. Fauré chose to name his piece after Racine rather than the mediaeval source material, possibly because the elegant and rather florid French version was quite a creative leap from the original Latin. The words form an entreaty to God for his heavenly gaze, fiery mercy and guidance towards the path of righteousness. It ends with an exchange of faith and grace between Christ and his gathered followers. Fauré treats the inspiring text with a gorgeously restrained and respectful charm that reflects his ten years of training at the liturgically-focused Ecole Niedermeyer in Paris.

If you like what you hear, why not join us? As we begin the second half of our ministerial season, we are currently accepting new members in all of our Music Ministry ensembles (Parish Choir, Family Choir, Handbell Ensemble). For more information, email russell.weismann@stjanedechantal.org.

This award, presented by Cardinal Wuerl, is given each year on the Solemnity of the Epiphany to show appreciation to women and men of the archdiocese who daily shine through working or volunteering in our parishes, or by being a new evangelizer in the world.

Please stay safe at home, and allow our snow removal crews to clear and treat our parking lots and walkways. If there is inclement weather on a weekend, any schedule changes will be announced on the parish website (www.stjanedechantal.org).

ST. MARTIN'S CLOAK VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Over the past few months, St. Martin's Cloak Guild has been delivering bread and food from markets in Bethesda to SOME (So Others May Eat) and to local seminaries in need of these provisions. Deliveries take place once a week, usually on Saturday mornings, and involve a few hours of driving time. They are seeking additional volunteers so that an individual would only work once every four to six weeks. It could also be a joint social activity with family adolescents. To participate or ask questions, call Edouard Motte at 301-897-3763.
