MUSIC & LITURGY NOTES: WORSHIPPING WELL

Lent is fast approaching and during the five weekends of the Lenten season, there is usually an impulse in many of us to increase our time in church. For some, this means attending daily Mass, while for others it is a renewed commitment to attend Sunday Mass. To prepare ourselves for this rejuvenation in the practice of our faith, I will offer a short mini-series on helping us to get the most out of our worship experience and to understand some of the beautiful rituals encompassed in the holy Mass.

Last weekend, I was struck by the beginning of Fr. Burney’s sermon. He started by asking the following question, “Who are you?”. As he explained, there are a myriad of answers that we can offer. One example was what our Holy Father, Pope Francis, said in response to being asked this same question, saying that he was a “sinner.” Another answer that I’ve heard from a non-Catholic is that they are a “child of God.” However you answer the question, it is essential that you can define your identity. And, if your answer pertains to your Christian faith, it is important to understand what that entails.

This brings me to the Nicene Creed. We profess the Nicene Creed as a community each week. We do not “say” the creed, but rather we “profess” it. There’s a big difference in the meaning of those two words. When I look out into the congregation during the creed, some are actively engaged, while others are not. Publicly professing the creed is an act of religious freedom that should not be taken for granted. Although it is not difficult to memorize, I take this opportunity to remind everyone that the words of the Nicene Creed are conveniently located on the front inside cover of the hymnal.

The Nicene Creed gives us a basic outline of what we believe in as Christians who are children of God and who have the tendency to sin. While there are many other creeds in our Catholic faith, the Nicene Creed, which was composed in the fourth century, had been selected by the early Church to defend itself against heresy. These words, over one thousand years old, are as ever-meaningful nowadays as they have been throughout history. So don’t keep quiet - embrace the creed and profess it wholeheartedly!

IN OUR PARISH

*Can't find the bulletin you brought home from church?
Want to keep up on what's happening in the parish even when you are away on vacation or sick in bed?
Visit our parish website, www.stjanedechantal.org
to view a copy of the bulletin and for more information on parish events and organizations.*

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish:

- Brian Buckley ♦ Jacki Farhood ♦ Anne Weeks
- Sean & Jessica Hayes & Family

If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form and drop it in the collection basket when you attend Mass.

SNOW POLICY FOR WEEKDAY MASSES

If the Federal Government is closed due to inclement weather, St. Jane de Chantal will not hold either the 8:00 am nor 11:00 am weekday Masses. Please stay safe at home, and allow our snow removal crews to clear and treat our parking lots and walkways. If there is inclement weather on a weekend, any schedule changes will be announced on the parish website (www.stjanedechantal.org).

“THANK YOU” FROM THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

“The love and support that you gave the Little Sisters of the Poor [during our visit the weekend of October 22/23] was a sign of your genuine charity. The collection amounted to $11,632.00. Your gifts are truly a sign of God’s loving and caring providence, which will help us provide the best possible care for may elderly in need who come to make their home with us. Thank you all! Our residents join with us in promising you our daily prayers for all your many intentions. God bless each and every one of you!” - The Little Sisters of the Poor and Residents of the Jeanne Jugan Residence, Washington, DC.

YOUNG ADULTS: BOOK DISCUSSION

Young adults are invited to join the Young Adult Fellowship for their Spring Spiritual Series: dinner and/or drinks and a book discussion, at Rock Bottom Brewery (7900 Norfolk Ave, Bethesda) on Mondays, February 6 and 20, March 6 and 20, and April 3 and 17. They will be reading Making Choices by Peter Kreeft. What is the book about? Check out the description on their facebook page. Feel free to attend as many sessions as you are able. A copy of the book will be provided to participants for free. RSVP to this event on facebook or at stjaneyaf@gmail.com so we can order enough copies of the book.

SHEPHERD'S TABLE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

A team of parishioners has started serving lunches to homeless people at Shepherd's Table in Silver Spring. It is a twice-a-month commitment, on the second and fourth Monday of each month. The "De Chantal Church" team would benefit from three to four additional volunteers to become fully sustainable on its own. For the moment, it is composed of retired parishioners who have fewer definite work occupations than those with a full-time job. The service requires availability from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. The team assembles at 11:15 am in St. Jane's parking lot to drive to downtown Silver Spring. For more information and/or to volunteer, call Edouard Motte at 301-897-3763.

REMEMBER IN PRAYER

... those who are sick, and all those in our nursing homes and hospitals, especially Dianne Fay Dickinson and Nancy Breslin.

IN OUR LITURGY & MUSIC MINISTRIES

Visit the Music Ministries page at www.stjanedechantal.org/ministries/music-ministry for information on the many music ensembles at St. Jane.

IN OUR FAITH FORMATION PROGRAMS

Visit the Faith Formation page at www.stjanedechantal.org for information on the various programs, registration forms and calendars.

IN OUR BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL

Check out the St. Jane de Chantal School website at www.dechantal.org to get information on admissions, see what each classroom is studying, and more.

HOOPS FOR HEART

February is National Heart Month. As one of our annual giving projects, the students of St. Jane de Chantal will be participating in Hoops For Heart the week of February 13. Help us reach our goal of $22,000 by contributing to this wonderful cause. Eighth graders Katrina Penney, Riley Clark, and Isa Western are the Junior Coordinators assisting Mrs. Tehan, and hope to surpass last year's total of $15,500. Katrina is a heart transplant recipient; thanks to all her doctors and research she is able to remain extremely active. This past summer Katrina participated in the National Transplant Games in Cleveland. She was a gold medalist in basketball and a silver medalist in Cornhole, and was chosen Youth Rookie of the Year at the games. Please support Katrina and her classmates. Go to www.heart.org/hoops, search for our school by city and state, and join our team. You can also send contributions to St. Jane de Chantal School, c/o Lisa Tehan. All checks should be made payable to The American Heart Association. Have a heart and donate today!

2017 CARDINAL'S APPEAL

This weekend, February 4/5, you are asked to review the Cardinal's Appeal brochure that you will receive with your bulletin today. The theme of the campaign is: "Seek first the kingdom of God (Mt 6:33).

The Cardinal's Appeal campaign is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift, today, payable over ten months.

A significant gift to the Cardinal's Appeal will touch the lives of many others in a very positive way. As you review the work enabled by your contribution, please reflect on God's gifts to you. He has given you all that you have. Your gifts to our parish, to the archdiocese, and to the work of the Church throughout the world should be given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives you.

Sometimes it is difficult to envision how one pledge can help an organization the size of our archdiocese, how it can make a real difference. But each pledge does make a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services.

Our combined gifts not only signify our gratitude to God, they glorify Him by enabling the work of our archdiocese and give Him thanks for all He has given us.

If you received your pledge form in the mail earlier this month, please complete it and either mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you that did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend, February 11/12. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

IN OUR ARCHDIOCESE

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE AFRICAN AMERICAN

This Sunday, February 5, marks the National Day of Prayer for the African American and African Family, which was created by Fr. James Goode, OFM in 1989. It is a day set aside to give special thanks to God for our families and place our every care in the arms of Jesus. Brochures suggesting ways you and your family can celebrate the day are available in the pamphlet carousel in the gathering space of church.

CATHOLIC BUSINESS NETWORK

The Catholic Business Network of Montgomery County will hold its monthly Friday Networking Breakfast Meeting on February 10, at 7:30 am at Lahinch Tavern and Grill (7747 Tuckerman Lane, Potomac; near Cabin John Mall). February's speaker will be Dr. Norvell Vandervall (Van) Coots, President and CEO of Holy Cross Health, and the President and CEO of the Maryland Region of Trinity Health. Register to attend at www.cbnmc.com.

CATHOLICS IN ANNAPOLIS

The 33rd annual "Catholics in Annapolis" will be held on February 15, from 3:00-8:00 pm. The event includes briefings from the Maryland Catholic Conference lobbyists; meetings with your legislators; and a reception for all the members of the General Assembly, the Maryland bishops, and other Church leaders. The event and reception are free, but registration is required: www.MdCatholic.org/LobbyNight.

HOLY FAMILY CELEBRATION

The Holy Family Celebration is a celebration for families and engaged couples on Saturday, February 18 from 12:30 -6:30 pm at the Saint John Paul II National Shrine (3900 Harewood Rd., NE). The event will feature a Mass and Consecration to the Holy Family with Cardinal Donald Wuerl, an inspiring talk for couples, and catechesis for teens and children. Following the talks, there will be opportunities for confession, and praise and worship, as well as Eucharistic adoration. The event will conclude with a family style meal and entertainment. Cost, including the meal: $10 for couples, and $20 for families of three or more. For more information and to register, visit www.holyfamilycelebration.eventbrite.com. This event is sponsored by the Archdiocese of Washington, the DC State Council of the Knights of Columbus, and the Saint John Paul II National Shrine.

QUO VADIS DAY FOR YOUNG MEN

On Friday, February 24, young men who are juniors and seniors in high school are invited to come to Saint John Paul II Seminary in Washington, DC (145 Taylor St., NE) to experience a day in the life of a seminarian. Participants will attend class—as well as Mass and Adoration—with seminarians, and have the opportunity to ask questions. In addition, they will be able to engage with other young men who are considering the seminary as an option for college. For more information, contact the Office of Priest Vocations at vocations@adw.org or call 202-636-9020.

CATHOLIC ADVOCACY NETWORK

The Maryland Catholic Conference's Catholic Advocacy Network (CAN) is the quickest and easiest way to contact your elected officials and make your voice heard in the public square. The email network alerts you to legislative news and directly connects you with lawmakers: email alerts on legislation; quick, easy-to-use, pre-drafted messages to send to your elected officials (as-is or modified to suit your style); and updated information on the issues. Get educated. Get mobilized. Get active. You can make a difference!

STEWARDSHIP

The Gospel today reminds us that our lives and our deeds must serve as examples to others, pointing the way to the Father. Not for our own benefit do we labor, but so that others may see our good works and give glory to our Father in heaven.

POPE FRANCIS

"It's hypocrisy to call yourself a Christian and chase away a refugee or someone seeking help, someone who is hungry or thirsty, toss out someone who is in need of my help. If I say I am Christian, but do these things, I'm a hypocrite. You cannot be a Christian without practicing the Beatitudes. You cannot be a Christian without doing what Jesus teaches us in Matthew 25," that is, to help the needy by such works of mercy as feeding the hungry, clothing the naked and welcoming the stranger.
