MUSIC & LITURGY NOTES: WORSHIPPING WELL (PART 3)

Before reading this week's column, please open your hymnal to #614. You'll notice that this is the hymn, Holy God, We Praise Thy Name. Now look at the hymn and listen. Do you hear anything? If not, are you really listening? Hmm... So, here's the thing: What we call music may be printed on the page in the hymnal, but it really doesn't exist until we bring it to life by making noise. Now, imagine the hundreds of persons around you together singing the first line, "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name." If you really use your imagination, you'll understand how our collective voices impressively bring printed words into a live experience. So, my point is, music requires participation.

I've noticed that there are three type of congregants in our pews. First, there are those who sing all parts of the Mass. They are fully engaged and seek to understand the deeper meaning of how the music connects to the scripture. These folks give me great hope and inspiration. Second, and perhaps the most popular, are those who will sing anything that does not require opening the hymnal. I notice them singing the words of the psalm, alleluia, and Eucharistic Acclamations, but when it comes to the hymns, they do not participate and go into "spectator" mode rather than participate. Lastly, there are those who sing nothing. These are the folks that I wish to connect with the most. I've heard all sorts of excuses by non-singers in the course of my career. We'd need another page in the bulletin for me to go into detail on this, but you've heard me mention this before.

I was recently on an airplane. During the pre-takeoff safety announcements, I noticed that barely anyone was paying attention to the flight attendant. Most of us were either reading or listening to music. Even though paying attention to this exercise is in our best interest, most of us were thinking, "I've heard this all before. I don't need to participate in the instructions again." I felt bad for the flight attendant who was going through all the motions, but making minimal impact. In many ways, I feel the same way when I cantor at Mass. We all know that actively engaging in the Mass is important for our spiritual health, but it takes a deliberate effort to participate. "I've been through this before. I don't need to participate again."

Everyone is involved in music ministry, not just our wonderful cantors and choir members. By coming to worship, we are invited and expected to participate in music. We can have the best music possible on paper in our hymnals, but until we have people to give it life, all that we have is silence. The people that make music determine what music sounds like. The shape and success of music at St. Jane's depends not on me, but on your willingness to sing and to participate in music ministry. My role is to guide, organize, train, and educate you all as musicians in Christ's name. I've said it before and I'll say it again. There is music in heaven, so use your time on earth to practice! I'd hate for St. Peter to be holding singing auditions at the gates! Worship well; sing, participate, serve those around you.

LIGHTS IN STAINED GLASS WINDOW BEHIND PIPE ORGAN

We are aware that some light bulbs in the stained glass window behind the pipe organ are not working. Accessing those bulbs will require removing some of the pipes from the organ. We are currently working to find a longer-lasting lighting solution that will not require frequent dismantling of our pipe organ.

PHYSICIAN-ASSISTED SUICIDE LEGISLATION IN MARYLAND

Legislation has been introduced again this year in the Maryland General Assembly—HB 370 and SB 354—that would allow doctors to legally prescribe a lethal dose of medicine at the request of a patient who has been deemed mentally competent and who has received a terminal diagnosis. The legislation is fatally flawed: no evaluation by a mental health professional would be required; there would be no education on the proper use or disposal of the lethal barbiturates; there is no drug take-back plan if the patient decides against taking the prescription; there are no safeguards for the disabled; and no ID is necessary for patients to pick up a prescription in Maryland. SB 354 will be heard in the Judicial Proceedings committee on Tuesday, March 7. A coalition of disability advocates, members of the medical community, patient advocates, and religious organizations—including the Maryland Catholic Conference—have joined together to advocate against these physician-assisted suicide bills, or what its proponents call "Death with Dignity." You are encouraged to join this coalition and help defeat this dangerous legislation. Learn the facts at www.stopassistedsuicidemd.org, and call or write your legislators today.

QUO VADIS DAY FOR YOUNG MEN

On Friday, February 24, young men who are juniors and seniors in high school are invited to come to Saint John Paul II Seminary in Washington, DC to experience a day in the life of a seminarian. Participants will attend class, Mass, and Adoration with seminarians, and have the opportunity to ask questions and engage with other young men considering the seminary as an option for college. For more information, contact the Office of Priest Vocations at vocations@adw.org or call 202-636-9020.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBIA CHESS TOURNAMENT

The Knights of Columbus, Rock Creek Council, will hold its 14th Annual Scholastic Chess Tournament on Sunday, March 12, at the Rock Creek Mansion (5417 West Cedar Lane, Bethesda), from 12:00 noon to 3:00 pm; registration at 11:30 am. Players will play in one of three sections: Grades K-2, 3-5, 6-8. Fee is $10 per player (proceeds go to a local charity). Hot dogs and snacks will be available. To register, or for more information, send player's name, grade, and school name to Mike Houlihan at mhoulihan.kofcrockcreekchess@gmail.com.

STEWARDSHIP

In today's first reading, the Israelites are urged to love their neighbors as themselves. In the Gospel, Jesus spells out how we are to do that — to give generously to those who ask of us and not to turn our backs on those who seek to borrow.

SECOND COLLECTION: CHURCH IN THE DEVELOPING WORLD

The second collection next weekend, February 25/26, be for the Church in the Developing World, which is directed to the Church in Latin America, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, and the Church in Africa. The needs are great, while the faithful in these areas are often limited in what they can contribute to support their Churches. Bishops and faithful in all three areas express their gratitude for the help they receive to support basic ministries and services in catechesis, education, liturgy, and providing physical structures for their parishes. This is one way that Catholics in the archdiocese can stand in solidarity with those in need in many parts of the world.

POOR BOX

The Poor Box next weekend, February 25/26, will benefit St. Martin's Cloak. In the spirit of St. Martin, who tore his military cloak in half to share with a beggar, St. Martin's Cloak provides financial and other assistance to those in need, particularly those in our parish. Financial assistance is completely confidential. Long term problems are referred to community resources.
