MUSIC AND LITURGY NOTES

In this week's column I must make the bittersweet announcement that our Assistant Music Director, Andrew Vu, has accepted a full-time position at the National Shrine as their next Assistant Organist. Andrew has served our parish for nearly nine years in a number of capacities. He has been an admired leader in our music ministry and I am particularly grateful for his assistance during my beginning years at the parish and especially his willingness to take on a number of additional duties when we went from a staff three musicians to two. In the past two years, Andrew has devoted himself as director our Family Choir and Ensemble at the Sunday 5:00 pm Mass. His love of service in ministry to others will be greatly missed and we certainly wish him nothing but the best in his future endeavors. During this time of transition, I ask for your prayers for our parish music ministry. Our needs are great, but our resources are limited. Although the position we are seeking to fill is only part-time, with God's grace, we shall find a suitable candidate who will continue to nurture us with the ministry of his/her music. Andrew's final Sunday will be September 3. He will also be performing his Master's degree recital from Catholic University at St. Jane's on Friday, September 1, at 7:30 pm, followed by a reception. If you are not able to attend his recital, please take some time after Mass during the next few weeks to thank him for his service.

SAINT JANE'S LITURGICAL MINISTRY

Volunteer Interest Form

Faith grows when it is well expressed in celebration - Good celebrations foster and nourish faith.

The Second Vatican Council called the entire Church to reflect on the role of the laity. It reminded us that all Christians, by virtue of their baptism, are called to spread the gospel, to continue the work of building the Kingdom of God, and, most especially, to offer worship. St. Jane's provides all parishioners with the opportunity to regularly celebrate vibrant, faith-enriching liturgy. Liturgical Ministers at St. Jane's live out their faith, give back to their parish, and answer God's call to serve their neighbors.

This Mass has the designation "white" because of that color's connection to our baptismal promises, and it has now become a tradition that all the participants at the liturgy wear white, to symbolize the bonds of community we all share through this sacrament of initiation. The cathedral is wheelchair accessible; the Mass will be sign language interpreted. For more information, contact Rachel Chung, Disabilities Coordinator at chungr@adw.org or 301-459-7464. Planning a late summer road trip?

Remember that your parish expenses never take a vacation.

We need your offerings in order to meet these expenses. If you miss any envelopes this summer, please bring your contributions up to date.

An easy way to support our parish offertory and the maintenance collection is to enroll in Faith Direct. You can choose to have your contributions debited from your bank account or charged to your credit card. You can enroll online at www.faithdirect.net or call 866-507-8757 (toll free). Our parish code is MD30.

FOCUS ON EVANGELIZATION

Put your evangelistic skills to work by befriending those who begin their inquiry into the Catholic Church this Fall.

Make yourself available to our parish RCIA team to help mentor or accompany others in their journey toward the Easter sacraments of initiation. Share what it means to you to be a Christian, a member of the Catholic Church, and an involved parishioner. Invite others to share their hopes, struggles or questions concerning Christianity and Catholicism. Be a friend. Pray for them regularly during this process of inquiry and entry into the Church. Above all: witness to all inquirers and fellow parishioners by the way you live as a true disciple day by day.

“In witnessing to the faith what counts is not success, but fidelity to Christ.”
