MUSIC AND LITURGY NOTES

This weekend we bid farewell to our Assistant Music Director, Andrew Vu, as he prepares to begin his new full-time position as Assistant Organist at the National Shrine. If you have not yet said goodbye to Andrew, please do so after the 10:00 am, 12:00 noon, or 5:00 pm Masses this weekend. He will be missed! In my former post as the Associate Music Director at the Shrine before coming to St. Jane's, I know of the unique demands of working at such a highly visible institution in the Catholic Church. I have no doubt that Andrew's musical skill, talent, and personality will comfort and inspire countless pilgrims at the Shrine and beyond. Many of you have been asking me how you can be of help during this time of transition. We currently are looking to hire someone to fill our part-time Assistant Music Director position, but this process may take some time, and in the meantime, I will be handling the duties of both the director and assistant director positions. What would be of immense support and assistance to me would be your willingness to join a choir or to serve in a liturgical ministry. Some of our ministries are "spread too thin," and thus require additional amounts of time on my part to assign and reconfigure schedules and music lists. Now is the time—if you have ever considered joining a Music Ministry (Parish Choir, Family Choir, Handbell Ensemble, Children's ► Choir, Cantor, Instrumentalist), or Liturgical Ministry (Lector, Usher, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Altar Guild, Children's Liturgy of the Word Leader), please fill out one of the appropriate forms located in today's bulletin and place it in the collection basket during Mass or bring it to the Parish Office. Your willingness to support these ministerial programs with your time and service will enable me to not have to spend large amounts of time attempting to fill vacant positions in the schedule or to worry about trying to prepare adequate music for our many parish liturgical celebrations. Thank you! ■

SECOND COLLECTION: CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

The second collection next weekend, September 9/10, will be the annual collection for The Catholic University of America. The Catholic University of America, which is unique among universities in the United States—even among Catholic universities. Established by Pope Leo XIII and the U.S. bishops in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. In addition to alumni who hail from the Archdiocese of Washington, Catholic University claims one-third of the U.S. bishops, and 12,000 priests and religious as alumni. Located in Washington, D.C., the university provides an education based in the Catholic intellectual tradition to almost 7,000 students through its 12 schools. Your support will enable Catholic University to expand its impact in preparing the next generation of leadership for our Church and nation.

POOR BOX

The Poor Box next weekend, September 9/10, will benefit Shepherd's Table, a resource center for the homeless and needy in Montgomery County, providing showers, counseling, homeless information, referrals and advocacy services, a clothes closet and an eye clinic, as well as other visiting professional services. For more information, visit www.shepherdstable.org.

If you missed any envelopes this summer, please bring your contributions up to date.

It is easy for people to forget to catch up once they are back, and our weekly offertory can fluctuate as a result.

An easy way to provide continuous support for our year-round programs is to enroll in Faith Direct.

You can enroll online at www.faithdirect.net or pick up a paper enrollment form from the gathering space of church. Our parish code is MD30.

The 11:00 am weekday Mass resumes
this Tuesday, September 5.

POPE FRANCIS

"In the hands of Jesus
[the littlest stone]
becomes precious,
because he picks it
up, looks at it with tenderness, works it with his Spirit and puts it in the right place, where He had ever a mind to put it,
and where it can be most useful to the whole building."
