MUSIC & LITURGY NOTES

"There is the Music of Heaven in all things and we have forgotten how to hear it until we sing."

– St. Hildegard of Bingen

Music has accompanied the human experience since the dawn of recorded history and its value to life is no less significant today than it has been throughout centuries. It is an activity most successful when accomplished as a group. Group participatory activities demonstrate a powerful ability to bring together people of different backgrounds and walks of life, and unite them in a common goal. Just as many of us may participate in sports or social activities, music is no exception, and in fact, one can argue that it reigns supreme in its collaborative methods because groups engaged in making music focus their voices, talents, and skills into one collective sound formed by the universal musical language that is known on all continents and in all parts of the world. In church music, our common goal is to offer praise to God and to inspire the hearts, minds, and souls of our fellow parishioners. Church music is just as important at the parish level as it is at the most visible level at St. Peter's in Rome. For when we celebrate Mass together, we join with the universal Church as part of the Holy See and as a result, our celebrations are no less holy and divine as those celebrated elsewhere.

This all sounds pretty heavy, I know, but, I am attempting to create a "larger than life" picture of why music is so important. Beyond tying us together at the parish level, it unites us at the universal level, as well. Music seeks to create harmony among us and offers our collective ministry as an oblation to the Divine. With his lofty explanation, I wish to invite any of you reading this to consider joining our Music Ministry at St. Jane's. We are entering the second half of our ministerial season and are in need of new members, especially in the Parish Choir and in the Cantor Guild. I ask that volunteers in the cantor ministry have a basic knowledge of reading music, while for volunteers in the Parish Choir, music reading skills are helpful, but not essential. However, prior choral singing experience does help a bit. Beyond these two ministries, our Family choir continues to flourish under its new director, Ms. Patrice Roe, and our Handbell Ensemble is now ringing at full capacity.

Music Ministry does require a time commitment: a weekly rehearsal for the parish choir and independent rehearsal for cantors. This time of preparation is intended to be both prayerful and practical. I often say that we live in an age of unreasonable musical expectations. Television and media give the illusion that musical performance is something that can be flawless and spontaneous, yet in reality, our music ministers work hard both inside and outside of rehearsal to offer their best in praise of God and in service to others. If you are interested, please give me a call at the parish office, or send me an email at russell.weismann@stjanedechantal.org – Russ

Please stay safe at home, and allow our snow removal crews to clear and treat our parking lots and walkways. If the Federal Government is opening on a delayed schedule, we will hold both the 8:00 am and 11:00 am Masses.

BIBLE STUDY: EXODUS

Do you want to experience true freedom? Have you ever wondered what freedom means, and how to find it? Exodus is often seen as the defining moment in Israel's history, when God called Israel out of slavery in Egypt to freedom. The story of Exodus isn't only Israel's story, however—it is also our story. Exodus: Called to Freedom looks through the lens of Christ and the Church to show how God ultimately desired to free us from the deadly grip of sin so that we could have authentic freedom. Join us for Exodus: Called to Freedom in the Seton Center beginning Thursday, February 1 at 9:00 am, through April 26. The course is ten weeks long. The cost for the Bible study is $30.00 to cover the cost of the study materials. Register by January 18 so the study materials can be delivered on time; contact Sally Daniel at 301-530-1640 or sally.daniel@stjanedechantal.org.

Attention CPAs and Tax Lawyers

This upcoming tax return season, Catholic Charities is managing an IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program at Catholic University's Columbus School of Law. CPAs and tax lawyers are needed to provide pro bono tax preparation for the working poor. If a return is filed, many of these workers will enjoy a sizeable IRS refund check due in large part to the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC). The EITC can help lift thousands of Washington area families out of poverty and keeps them out of poverty. Sadly, almost 20,000 low income residents of DC are not claiming the EITC, and thus are losing a potential financial resource for them. Training will be provided in January for all interested volunteers. Tax return preparation will take place on Saturdays from February 3 to April 14. To learn more about volunteering for Catholic Charities VITA Program, contact Deacon Jim Shanahan by email: jim.shanahan@cc-dc.org or phone: 202-772-4310.

ANNUAL CHRISTIAN UNITY SERVICE

The 24th annual Christian Unity Service will be held Sunday, January 28, at 3:00 pm, at the Shrine of St. Jude (12701 Veirs Mill Rd, Rockville). Join with other Christian congregations of Montgomery County in the celebration of song, scripture, and prayer in fulfillment of the Lord's will "that all may be one." The Rev. Jeff Jones, Pastor of North Bethesda United Methodist Church, will preach. Special music will be provided by a combined choir of the participating churches and the Trinity Lutheran Church Handbell Choir. A free-will offering will support needy communities in the Caribbean. A reception and fellowship will follow the service.

IS GOD CALLING YOU TO THE DIACONATE?

The archdiocesan Office of Permanent Diaconate Formation will begin a new cycle of recruitment and preparation of men for the diaconate. You will be able to experience a "day-in-the-life" of a seminarian by joining them for Mass, Adoration, meals, class, sports, and just hanging out. Rick Kramer, who will lead talks on keys for men to actively engage in the spiritual life. They will celebrate Mass, and offer opportunities for confession and to spend quiet time with our Lord in Adoration. The Men's Retreat will be held at Priestfield Pastoral Center in Kearneysville, WV. It is a short drive from the Washington D.C. area and provides space for quiet reflection away from all the distractions. The cost of the retreat is $230 for the weekend, covering a double occupancy room (two double beds and a private bath) and meals including dinner Friday night; breakfast, lunch, and dinner on Saturday; and breakfast and lunch on Sunday.
