WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish:

◆ Paul Huang

If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form and drop it in the collection basket when you attend Mass.

WITH GRATITUDE

Our parish owes a debt of gratitude to all who contributed towards the celebration of Holy Week at St. Jane's. In particular our liturgical ministers: Ushers, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Eucharistic Minister Captains, and Altar Servers (and their parents!). We also thank members of the Parish and Family Choirs and Cantors for the extraordinary number of hours that they dedicated in rehearsal of their ministry. Our Music Ministers never fail to provide us with wonderful artistic beauty to enhance the Mass. We are grateful to the members of our Altar Guild for preparing the linens and altar cloths, changing candles, and watering plants. We are most appreciative of Sarah James who took time to launder all of the altar server albs, Nancy Flynn and Karen Atabek who so beautifully decorated the church for Easter, Josie Ouyang for polishing our repository tabernacle for Holy Thursday, and to Joe Fernandez and his son for preparing our Easter Vigil fire. Holy Week liturgies as beautiful as the ones that we celebrate as St. Jane's require effort on the part of so many people and we are grateful for all who volunteered their time and services. May you experience Easter joy this season!

WITNESS TO LIFE MASS & PROCESSION

Please join us this Sunday, April 8, after the 10:00 am Mass for a rosary procession to Wildwood Medical Center (10401 Old Georgetown Road), where LeRoy Carhart's late-term abortion clinic is located. Signs and rosaries will be available.

LIVING STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The eighth grade classes presented the Living Stations for the faculty, student body, parents, and parishioners to begin Holy Week at St. Jane de Chantal. This was a somber play to relive the Christ's passion and death by bringing the Stations of the Cross alive for all to witness.

FOURTH GRADE LENTEN SERVICE PROJECT

To live the true Lenten spirit, the fourth grade classes and their families got together to prepare 2,130 sandwiches for Martha's Table, and 90 get well cards for hospitalized children. This was an excellent way to use their time for others and give back to the community.

WAX MUSEUM

The third grade students selected a famous person from history to represent at our very own De Chantal Wax Museum. After researching their famous person of choice, they wrote reports, drew pictures, compiled props, and dressed as the famous person to present their research to the entire school. The student body visited the De Chantal wax museum, where third grade students were dressed as Thomas Jefferson, Anne Frank, Mary Cassatt, Steve Jobs, Neil Armstrong, Marie Curie, and many more. Students had memorized 30-second speeches to give whenever someone pushed their pretend button next to their "exhibit." The wax figures told of their life histories, the hardships they had overcome, and the reason they are remembered today.

THEATRE EXPERIENCES

Kindergarten recently visited Adventure Theatre in Glen Echo to see Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day. After studying the book in class, the kindergarten was excited to watch the play and compare it to the book. The third grade classes went to Imagination Stage in Bethesda to see The Princess and the Pauper: A Bollywood Tale. Set in long ago India, this Bollywood-inspired adaptation of the classic Mark Twain novel shows how the common people work long hours to support the luxurious lifestyle of those in the palace. Third graders learned how to stand up and be leaders to invoke change.

POPE FRANCIS

"To celebrate Easter is to allow Jesus to triumph over the craven fear that so often assails us and tries to bury every kind of hope. The stone before the tomb shared in this, the women of the Gospel shared in this, and now the invitation is addressed once more to you and to me. An invitation to break out of our routines and to renew our lives, our decisions and our existence. An invitation that must be directed to where we stand, what we are doing and what we are, with the "power ratio" that is ours. Do we want to share in this message of life or do we prefer simply to continue standing speechless before events as they happen?"

Pope Francis, homily,
 Easter Vigil,
 31 March 2018.
