

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR C

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1114

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 66:4

All the earth shall bow down before you,
O God, and shall sing to you,
shall sing to your name, O Most High!

READING I: IS 62:1-5

Excerpted from Third Isaiah,
this is one of many sings celebrating the return from exile.

In this case, rejoicing over the restored city of Jerusalem as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 96

This enthronement psalm has a strong missionary character, calling on God's people to proclaim the divine Name through all the nations

READING II: 1 COR 12:4-11

This passage explains
the gifts of the Spirit—unity in diversity,
many gifts and one Spirit.
Even the diversity of gifts
aids the development of unity, since all are “given for some [shared] benefit.”

GOSPEL: JN 2:1-11

The beginning of John's “book of signs”:
the wedding at Cana.
Key to the story are Mary's
total trust in her Son, Jesus' command over nature itself expressed in his ability to transform water into wine,
and the creation of a wine
so strikingly good that it suggests the bounty of the reign of God.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 23:5

You have prepared a table before me,
and how precious is the chalice
that quenches my thirst.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish. If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form and drop it in the collection basket when you attend Mass.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. HOLIDAY

This Monday, January 21, is Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, a federal holiday. The only Mass on Monday will be celebrated at 8 am. The parish office will be closed.

SNOW POLICY FOR WEEKDAY MASSES

If the Federal Government is closed due to inclement weather, St. Jane de Chantal will not hold either the 8:00 am nor the 11:00 am weekday Masses. Please stay safe at home, and allow our snow removal crews to clear and treat our parking lots and walkways. If the Federal Government is opening on a delayed schedule, we will hold both the 8:00 am and 11:00 am Masses.

ADVENT GIVING TREE

The Sodality would like to thank the parish for its generous support in the form of gifts, driving, donations, student volunteers, and many helping hands. We were able to provide over 800 gifts to 16 organizations including shelters, outreach programs for low income families, and nursing homes. We get many beautiful letters of thanks. Here is an excerpt from Sister Anne Toomey: "The sisters were so amazed that you continue year after year to remember the Sisters of Charity in such a generous and thoughtful way. [...] May God grant you many blessings for all that you do for others." We add our thanks and good wishes, Denise, Colleen, Gretchen, and the St. Jane De Chantal Sodality.

SACRED HEART PARISH FOOD PANTRY

While the Christmas season has come to a close, the need for your generosity remains. During the winter months the less fortunate in our area often have to choose between spending on groceries and paying their utility bills. The food pantry at Shrine of the Sacred Heart in DC serves these people. They depend on your continued generosity. Please remember to bring non-perishables to Mass and leave them in the basket in the gathering space of church. Thank you.

PILGRIMAGE WITH FR. BURNEY

Fr. Keith Burney will be leading a pilgrimage to France, "Following the Footsteps of St. Jane Frances de Chantal and St. Francis de Sales," from June 12-21, 2019. SIXTH GRADE FIELD TRIP

The sixth grade visited The National Shrine recently and toured many beautiful chapels that represent countries from all over the world, including the Hall of American Saints. The best part of the trip was that the entire basilica was still decorated for Christmas, complete with a beautiful Nativity scene and completed artwork depicting many saints and the Holy Trinity in the newly completed main sanctuary.

IN OUR ARCHDIOCESE

For more information on vocations, education, family, youth, social concerns, & other events in the Archdiocese of Washington, visit www.adw.org. The website also has a media center, which includes social media tools, a YouTube channel, and apps.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO CAN'T GET TO MASS?

Since 1952, the Archdiocese of Washington has produced a weekly televised Mass for those who are homebound, broadcast from the Crypt Church of the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. It is a wonderful ministry for those members of our Catholic family who are unable to be physically present with a local worshipping community for the Sunday Eucharistic Liturgy. The Mass airs every Sunday at 10:30 am on WDCW-50; no cable, Dish or DIRECTV subscribers: Ch. 50; Comcast: Ch. 23 in Washington, DC and Montgomery County, Ch. 3 in Prince George's County and Southern Maryland; RCN: Ch 15; Verizon: Ch. 3. Email communications@adw.org with the mailing address(es) of those you know are unable to attend Mass so they can receive the free Celebrate! TV Mass newsletter.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE ON TV?

Join the congregation at a taping of the TV Mass! Your presence at the TV Mass is a wonderful way to bring the Mass to those who are homebound. Two Masses are taped on the same evening, from 7:30-8:45pm in the Crypt Church of the Basilica at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception (400 Michigan Ave., NE in Washington, DC). Come for one Mass or stay for both! Upcoming taping dates are January 24, and February 7 and 21. To receive the free Celebrate! TV Mass newsletter, email communications@adw.org with your mailing address.

CHRISTIAN UNITY SERVICE

Join with other local Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox congregations in commemoration of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity at North Bethesda United Methodist Church, 10100 Old Georgetown Road on Sunday, January 27, at 3:00 pm. Special music will be provided by a combined choir of the participating churches and the Trinity Lutheran Church Handbell Choir. A free-will offering will assist CASA de Maryland in improving the quality of life for recent immigrants. A reception and fellowship will follow the service.

MEN'S DISCERNMENT RETREAT

The Archdiocese of Washington invites young men (college aged through 40s) who are considering a call to the priesthood to attend a discernment retreat led by priests and seminarians of the Archdiocese of Washington at Washington Retreat House and Saint John Paul II Seminary, Friday-Sunday, February 1 through February 3. The retreat will offer time away from your daily routine and provide an opportunity for prayer and reflection to examine God's call. To register, visit https://dcpriest.formstack.com/forms/mds_2019. For more information, contact the Office of Priest Vocations at vocations@adw.org or 202-636-9020.

ARCHDIOCESAN MEN'S RETREAT

On the weekend of February 8-10, the archdiocesan Men's Retreat will be held at Priestfield Pastoral Center in Kearneysville, WV, which is a short drive from the Washington, DC area. The theme of the retreat, directed by Fr. Dave Wells and Fr. Rick Kramer, is "Man's Vocation: Priest, Prophet, and King." This retreat will provide you with time away to reconnect and recharge the most important relationship in your life - your relationship with the Lord. There will be daily Mass, confessions, and Adoration. The cost is $235 for the weekend, covering a double occupancy room (two double beds and a private bath) and meals including dinner Friday night; breakfast, lunch, and dinner on Saturday; and breakfast and lunch on Sunday. QUO VADIS SHADOW DAY

Juniors and seniors in high school are invited to Saint John Paul II Seminary on Friday, February 15. High school men will eat three meals, attend class, Mass, and Adoration with seminarians, and have an opportunity to ask questions. In addition, the attendees will be able to engage with others who may also be considering the seminary as an option for college. CATHOLICS IN ANNAPOLIS

Registration is now open for the Maryland Catholic Conference's annual event, Catholics in Annapolis, which will be held on February 21 starting at 3:00 pm. The event will kick off with praying the Rosary for our elected leaders, led by Maryland's bishops. Each year, the Maryland Catholic Conference welcomes hundreds of Catholics from across Maryland to the capital to meet face-to-face with legislators and share the Church's position on important issues. Among the key issues Catholics will be asked to address on this session are a proposed abortion rights constitutional amendment, securing scholarships for low-income students, stopping the legalization of assisted suicide, and protecting human rights. To reserve your spot today, visit www.catholicsinannapolis.org or call 410-269-1155. A full agenda for the day and more info is available online.

JOIN THE CATHOLIC ADVOCACY NETWORK

Maryland's 439th Legislative Session of the General Assembly began on January 9; the session will run for 90 days, concluding on April 8. In anticipation of a busy session, the Maryland Catholic Conference has been hard at work getting to know incoming leadership and new legislators, and preparing to address major legislative issues, including a proposal to enshrine abortion in the state's constitution. To stay informed on the abortion amendment and other issues during the legislative session, be sure to sign up to join the Catholic Advocacy Network at www.mdcatcon.org/joincan to join today.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CHESS TOURNAMENT

The Knights of Columbus, Rock Creek Council, will host the Scholastic Chess Tournament on March 3, from 12:00—3:00 pm, at the Rock Creek Mansion (5417 West Cedar Lane, Bethesda). Registration is at 11:30 am. Players will play in one of three sections: Grades K-2, 3-5, 6-8. Fee is $10 per player (proceeds go to local charity). Hot dogs and snacks will be available. To register, or for more information, send player's name, grade, and school name to Mike Houlihan at mhoulihan.kofcrockcreekchess@gmail.com.

STEWARDSHIP

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits — the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

POOR BOX

The Poor Box next weekend, January 26/27, will benefit St. Martin's Cloak. In the spirit of St. Martin, who tore his military cloak in half to share with a beggar, St. Martin's Cloak provides financial and other assistance to those in need, particularly those in our parish. Financial assistance is completely confidential. St. Martin's Cloak partners with various religious and civic organizations in Montgomery County to provide this emergency support.

POPE FRANCIS

"The narrative of the wedding at Cana invites us to rediscover that Jesus does not present himself to us as a judge ready to condemn our faults. He presents himself as he who responds to the expectations and promises of joy that dwell in the heart of each one of us."
