

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

FOR THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR C

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1126

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 31:3-4

Be my protector, O God,
a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold!
Lead me, guide me,
for the sake of your name.

READING I: JER 17:5-8

A poem in two stanzas, contrasting the woe pronounced on
those who trust human beings, and the blessings (beatitudes) upon those who trust in the Lord.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 1

As in today's first reading, the psalm declares that the righteous—
those who hope in the Lord and delight in His Law—
will prosper like a tree planted near living waters.
The wicked, who put their "trust in human beings," are cursed to wither and die.

READING II: 1 COR 15:12, 16-20

We have been brought to a new relationship with God
through the resurrection of Christ.
The bodily resurrection of Christ
validates the hope of the resurrection of departed believers

GOSPEL: LK 6:17, 20-26

In this gospel the similar pattern of woe and blessings are described,
with the pattern reversed.
The Beatitudes and woes are ultimately a question of human beings'
relationship with God.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: JN 3:16

God so loved the world
that he gave his Only Begotten Son,
so that all who believe in him
may not perish,
but may have eternal life.

NEWS FROM SIXTH GRADE

Sixth graders have been busy selling candygrams throughout the school for our play fundraiser. All grades are enjoying the sweet treats before Valentine's Day. Thanks to all who participated in Wreathes Across America during the holidays. The sixth grade sponsored over 300 wreathes that were placed on graves at Arlington Cemetery. This was a big fundraiser for our spring production. The play, Once upon a Mattress, will be performed March 21 and 22. We hope to see you there!

HAPPY CHINESE NEW YEAR

The kindergarten class celebrated the Chinese New Year by parading around the school as a Chinese Dragon. Each student held on to the body of the dragon and different students took turns taking the lead and wearing the large head of the lucky dragon! They paraded around the school with drums and noisemakers. They also learned about the Chinese New Year traditions. Happy Year of the pig!

MARYLAND AGAINST PHYSICIAN ASSISTED SUICIDE

For the fourth time in five years, the Oregon-based special interest group Compassion and Choices is pushing to legalize physician-assisted suicide (PAS) in Maryland, and the Maryland Catholic Conference is joining with its coalition partners to strongly oppose the legislation. The Conference is a long-time member of the Maryland Against Physician Assisted Suicide (MAPAS) Coalition. Titled the "End-of-Life Option Act" (HB 399/SB 311), the bill was introduced at the beginning of February in both chambers of the Maryland General Assembly and is nearly identical to legislation rejected in 2015, 2016 and 2017 by Maryland lawmakers. Hearings have been scheduled for Tuesday, February 19 at in the Senate. To learn more about Maryland Against Physician Assisted Suicide, sign-up for alerts, and get involved, visit: www.stopassisted-suicide.md.org.

MARYLAND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ON ABORTION

Maryland House Speaker Michael Busch has made good on his promise to introduce legislation that would put to the voters in 2020 a proposed amendment to Maryland's constitution that would enshrine the so-called "right" to an abortion. The introduction of legislation establishing a woman's "right" to abortion by way of a Maryland constitutional amendment on the 2020 ballot should be of great concern to Maryland lawmakers and to all Marylanders. Stopping the bill in the general assembly is vital; if the bill passes and is affirmed by the voters, it would effectively prevent any future common-sense regulations on abortion or protections of life in Maryland. As of the printing of this bulletin, the bill (HB 1031) did not have any available language so it is unclear exactly what the bill would do or how far it would go. The Maryland Catholic Conference is asking all Catholics who want to speak up against this bill to join them on February 21 at Catholics in Annapolis. That evening you can meet face-to-face with your elected lawmakers and tell them the dangers of this bill and urge them to vote against it.

CATHOLICS IN ANNAPOLIS

Registration is open for the Maryland Catholic Conference's annual event, Catholics in Annapolis, which will be held on Thursday, February 21 starting at 3:00 pm. Each year, the Maryland Catholic Conference welcomes hundreds of Catholics from across Maryland to the capital to meet face-to-face with legislators and share the Church's position on important issues. Among the key issues Catholics will be asked to address on this session are a proposed abortion rights constitutional amendment, securing scholarships for low-income students, stopping the legalization of assisted suicide, and protecting human rights. For more information and to reserve your spot, visit www.catholicsinannapolis.org or call 410-269-1155.

MORNING OF RECOLLECTION

The archdiocesan Office of Priest Vocations is sponsoring a Morning of Recollection on Saturday, February 23, from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon, at St. Patrick Church (4101 Norbeck Road, Rockville). The morning, entitled "Simon Peter — Our Call to Discipleship" will be offered by Fr. Kevin Regan, Pastor of Saint John Neumann Church, Gaithersburg, and a Spiritual Director at the St. John Paul II Seminary. The morning will include the celebration of Mass, reflection, Adoration, and the opportunity for confession. For more information, contact Maris Moriarty at marimoriarty@adw.org or 202-636-9020.

There will be an anointing and a blessing with Lourdes water. Members of the Order of Malta will be present to help people. Family, friends, and caregivers are invited. A light luncheon reception will follow Mass. There is no charge for the day. For more information, contact Joan Glasgow at 301-807-7500 or glasgow778@gmail.com.

QUO VADIS EXCURSION

THE WAY RETREAT

The Way is a three-day guided meditation and prayer program for survivors of abuse. It is an opportunity for healing and prayer and for survivors to reflect on God’s plan for their lives. This retreat will be facilitated by experienced counselors, pastoral theologians, and a chaplain. This retreat is sponsored by the Archdiocese of Washington and is free of charge to participants. The retreat will be offered separately for men and women: the Men’s Retreat will take place April 5-7, and the Women’s Retreat will take place April 12-14. For more information, visit <https://adw.org/the-way-retreat>. To learn more or to register, contact Deborah McDonald at mcdonald@adw.org or 301-853-4466.

ANNUAL ARCHDIOCESAN JUBILARIAN MASS

2019 ANNUAL ARCHDIOCESAN APPEAL

2019 marks the 50th anniversary of this unified appeal to all the faithful, established in 1969 by Patrick Cardinal O’Boyle.

The theme of the 2019 Appeal is “Our Faith. Our Hope. Our Mission” and is much different from a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable over ten months that will help support the ministries and mission of all our faith communities of the Church of Washington. A gift to the Annual Appeal will touch the lives of thousands of people in a very positive way. Our combined gifts not only signify our gratitude to God, they glorify Him by enabling the work of our archdiocese and give Him thanks for all He has given us.

This year, you can support the Annual Appeal many different ways. Many of you may have received a mailing in January that you can respond to. You can also support the Appeal online at adw.org or text “Give” to 301-231-1816. We will also be providing the opportunity to support the Appeal at Mass next weekend, February 23/24. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

STEWARDSHIP

The words of the psalmist echo the theme of all of today’s readings. “Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.”

As good stewards, firmly grounded in that hope, may we bear fruit in due season — assisting the poor, feeding the hungry, and consoling the sorrowful whenever we have the chance. (Ps 1)

Financial assistance is completely confidential. St. Martin’s Cloak partners with various religious and civic organizations in Montgomery County to provide this emergency support.
