

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER / YEAR C

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1081

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: 1 Pt 2:2

Like newborn infants,
you must long for the pure, spiritual milk,
that in him you may grow to salvation,
alleluia.

READING I: ACTS 5:12-16

This text shows the power of the risen Christ at work in his church.
“... more than ever, believers in the Lord,
... were added to them,” that is,
they were added to the church community by God. The apostles’ ministry was very strong, and they were held in awe,
even by non-believers.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 118

This individual song of thanksgiving becomes for us Jesus’ own celebration of the resurrection and our assurance that the “rejected stone” of the crucified Christ
has become the “cornerstone”
of our faith.

READING II: REV 1:9-11A, 12-13, 17-19

In this opening vision of the Apocalypse, John sees the risen Christ and
receives messages for the seven churches.
These resurrection appearances
(this one in heaven) were revelations
that formed the church
and gave it its mission for the world.

GOSPEL: JOHN 20:19-31

In John, two resurrection appearances (on earth) were described:
to the disciples on Easter evening,
and to Thomas a week later.
The disciples had to come to faith
when they saw him;
those who have not seen him
can still have the blessedness of faith
by believing the testimony of these first witnesses of Jesus’ death and resurrection.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: JN 20:27

Bring your hand
and feel the place of the nails,
and do not be unbelieving but believing,
alleluia.

FAREWELL, SALLY DANIEL

God has a plan for everyone and there is a time and a season for everything. After serving the parish for the past 16 years, it is with a heavy heart that I will be leaving St. Jane. I will be taking on a new position in the archdiocesan offices beginning May 15. I have so enjoyed serving the families of St. Jane's, meeting with people for faith formation, watching the children and families grow in their faith, and having you as a part of my life. I am grateful for the leadership of both Msgr. Essex and Fr. Giese, and I have enjoyed serving the youth with Fr. Cusick and Fr. Keith. I have come to know many of you through my time at St. Jane's and I will always consider St. Jane's my home. Know my prayers will be with all of you, and I ask for your prayers as I begin a new opportunity. In Peace, Sally Daniel.

need with help from the generosity of contributions to our parish poor box. Bethesda Help is actively seeking volunteers for the positions of Officers of the Day (ODs) and Drivers. Then, in our time too, "men and women in great numbers"
will be "added to the Lord."*

POPE FRANCIS

"The final verse of today's Gospel speaks of a book: the Gospel, we are told, does not contain all the many other signs that Jesus worked. After the great sign of his mercy, we could say that there is no longer a need to add another. Yet one challenge does remain. There is room left for the signs needing to be worked by us, who have received the Spirit of love and are called to spread mercy. It might be said that the Gospel, the living book of God's mercy that must be continually read and reread, still has many blank pages left. It remains an open book that we are called to write in the same style, by the works of mercy we practise."
