

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

FOR THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR A

Readings in Worship hymnal #1115

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 96:1, 6

O sing a new song to the Lord;
sing to the Lord, all the earth.
In his presence are majesty and splendor,
strength and honor in his holy place.

READING I: IS 8:23—9:3

The “land of Zebulun and Naphtali” (quoted directly in the Gospel) was the territory of the northernmost tribes of Israel;
in Jesus’ day this area was called Galilee.
Now that this area is at peace once more,
the prophet is given hope that a king of David’s line will come to fulfill the hope for peace
throughout the country.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 27

The psalmist places trust completely in God.

READING II: 1 COR 1:10-13, 17

Paul identifies the first major problem in the Corinthian community:
People are fighting over “authentic”
Christianity, defined by the person who evangelized them. Paul points out that all the believers belong to Christ.

GOSPEL: MT 4:12-23 OR 4:12-17

Jesus, who came from Galilee, made Capernaum the center of his mission. Matthew summarizes Jesus’ call for repentance
and recounts the call of the first disciples, Jesus’ closest allies.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 34:6

Look toward the Lord and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.

With a commitment to strong academics in core subjects of religion, math, language arts, science and history/social studies, teachers include cooperative learning and problem solving into all lessons. Students utilize Chrome books, Google Classroom, and iPads, along with textbooks across all academic disciplines. Teachers also pique student curiosity through field trips, guest speakers, and visual arts and music. Each school year, many students participate in one of more of the De Chantal fine arts programs; band, choir, dance, and theater. POPE FRANCIS

We, today's Christians, have the joy of proclaiming and witnessing to our faith because there was that first announcement, because there were those humble and courageous men who responded generously to Jesus' call. On the shores of the lake, in an inconceivable land, the first community of disciples of Christ was born. May the knowledge of these beginnings give rise in us to the desire to bear Jesus' word, love and tenderness in every context, even the most difficult and resistant. All the spaces of human living are soil on which to cast the seeds of the Gospel, so they may bear the fruit of salvation.

Pope Francis, Angelus,
 Saint Peter's Square,
 22 January 2017
