

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Readings at www.usccb.org

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 25:15-16

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare.
Turn to me and have mercy on me,
for I am alone and poor.

READING I: EX 17:3-7

By God's mercy, using Moses as the divine instrument, water gushes from a barren rock at Horeb. The miracle is two-edged, however, because the people doubt that God could provide water in the desert, so it goes down in memory as a kind of edgy blessing. (Tradition held that because Moses hesitated and doubted God at Horeb/Massah/Meribah, he was denied entrance to the Promised Land; he was only allowed to view it from a distance, from the top of Mount Nebo.)

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 95

Used as the daily "invitatory" to begin the Church's Liturgy of the Hours, Psalm 95 encourages us to use "today" to hear God's voice and not to doubt as the people did "at Meribah/as in the day of Massah in the desert."

READING II: ROM 5:1-2, 5-8

God provided water in the desert, but Christ laid down his life for us. There is no greater love.

GOSPEL: JN 4:5-12

The story of Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman is used by John to make several points. The Samaritan believes and gives witness to Jesus when even his followers don't understand who he is. He is "living water" which comes alive in believers as the source of eternal life. Jesus' disciples do not need to go to a particular place to worship, because they worship "in Spirit and truth."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: JN 4:13-14

For anyone who drinks it, says the Lord, the water I shall give will become in him a spring welling up to eternal life.

POPE FRANCIS'S PRAYER TO MARY DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

*O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick,
who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain,
keeping your faith firm.*

*You, Salvation of Your People, know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide so that,
as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.*

*Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.*

*Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God.
Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial,
but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.*

CHORAL TEXTS AND TRANSLATIONS

Expectans expectavi Charles Wood

This sanctuary of my soul,
Unwitting I keep white and whole,
Unlatch'd and lit, if Thou should'st care
To enter or to tarry there.

With parted lips and outstretch'd hands,
And list'ning ears Thy servant stands.
Call Thou early, call Thou late,
to Thy great service dedicate.
My soul, keep white, and whole.

(Charles Hamilton Sorley, 1895 – 1915)

Sicut cervusGiovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina

As the hart longs for the water springs,
So longs my soul for thee, O God.
My soul has thirsted for the living God:
When shall I come and appear before the face of my God?
My tears have been my bread by day and by night,
While it is said to me daily:
Where is your God?

(Psalm 42:2-4)
