

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

FOR THE TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR B

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1188

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: EST 4:17

Within your will, O Lord,
all things are established,
and there is none
that can resist your will.
For you have made all things,
the heaven and the earth,
and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

READING I: GN 2:18-24

As in the first creation narrative (Gen 1:27), humans are created “in the divine image”. This connection is also suggested in today’s second reading by the power of “the man” (Adam) to name God’s creation. God appears a little slow to catch on in this reading, forming various animals as a “suitable partner” for the man but not getting it right until the appropriate partner is created and accepted as “bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh.”

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 128

The psalm sings the praises of orderly family life as a divine blessing.

READING II: HEB 2:9-11

Christ is presented as the exemplar who models the divine plan for us. Through Christ, we all achieve our identity as having “one origin.”

GOSPEL: MK 10:2-16

While marriage is not the standard for all people, the marriage commitment is also used as a metaphor for the divine-human relationship. As followers of Christ, our values and ideals are shaped by the message of Jesus, and the unfolding of that kingdom is for us, like children.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: LAM 3:25

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
to the soul that seeks him.

OCTOBER ♦ CELEBRATING MARY

In Church culture, the months of May and October are known as Marian months because of the celebration of two important feast days devoted to Mary, the Visitation of Mary (5/31), and Our Lady of the Rosary (10/7). To honor this custom, during this month of October, each of our Sunday Mass Concluding Hymns at the Saturday 5:00 pm Mass, and Sunday 10:00 am and 12:00 pm Masses will be a Marian hymn. As at all Masses, we invite you to fully participate in singing the Concluding Hymn, the text of which, in addition to all of our hymns, is specially chosen to complement the scripture readings and liturgical theme of the Mass.

Mother, help our faith!

Open our ears to hear God's word and to recognize his voice and call.

Awaken in us a desire to follow in his footsteps, to go forth from our own land and to receive his promise.

Help us to be touched by his love, that we may touch him in faith.

Help us to entrust ourselves fully to him and to believe in his love, especially at times of trial, beneath the shadow of the cross, when our faith is called to mature. Sow in our faith the joy of the Risen One.

Remind us that those who believe are never alone.

Teach us to see all things with the eyes of Jesus, that he may be light for our path.

And may this light of faith always increase in us, until the dawn of that undying day which is Christ himself, your Son, our Lord! (Pope Francis, Lumen fidei, 2013)

RESPECT LIFE MONTH: WITNESS TO LIFE MASS/PROCESSION

Please join us Sunday, October 21, at 12:00 noon for a Witness to Life Mass. They offer religious items, carved from the olive wood of the Holy Land, to support and help fund the Christian presence in the Holy Land. For more information on the group and to see samples of their work, visit www.little-bethlehem.org.

THRIFT SHOP AT THE HSA CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

The Home and School Association is now collecting items for the Thrift Shop at St. Jane De Chantal School's 13th Annual Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, November 10. Consider donating your gently used items. They can accept a wide variety of items such as housewares, jewelry, sporting equipment, bikes, books, baby items and toys; they cannot accept clothing, shoes, broken toys, games with missing pieces, or dirty/stained items. They will be accepting items until November 7. If you have items to donate, contact Sofia Pagedas at c.pagedas@comcast.net. Proceeds benefit our school. Any items not sold will be donated. Thank you for your support!

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A EUCHARISTIC MINISTER?

Our parish always has need for new volunteers to serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (Eucharistic Ministers), particularly at the Sunday 12:00 noon and 5:00 pm Masses. Interested persons should contact Dr. Russell Weismann by calling the parish office. An archdiocesan training session for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will take place on Saturday, November 10 from 9:00 am—12:00 pm at St. Michael the Archangel Church in Silver Spring.

BASS VOICES NEEDED

The Parish Choir is in need of additional bass voices to support their choral ministry. Rehearsals are on Thursday evenings at 8:00 pm, and the choir sings for the Sunday 10:00 am Mass. The ability to read music is not required, but prior choral experience is helpful. Contact Dr. Russell Weismann at russell.weismann@stjanedechantal.org for more information.

IN OUR BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL

Check out the St. Jane de Chantal School website at www.dechantal.org to get information on admissions, see what each classroom is studying, and more.

CHROME BOOKS

Our school is busy integrating Chrome books into our daily academic schedule. This makes learning engaging and fun! Some of the Google Classroom activities include "Flippity" (extension for flashcards), "Hyperdocs" (digital lessons for inquiry-based learning), "Canva" for graphic design, computer programming in "Java," "Bitbox" coding, and participation in growth mindset through "Learnstorm" in Khan Academy. We add more every week! Thank you HSA and the De Chantal community for supporting this massive technology advancement through your volunteer hours and fundraising!

SIMON SAYS

St. Jane de Chantal students and teachers gathered on October 5 for a school-wide Simon Says game to support two of our students, Jack Hill and Harper Dexter. A brief presentation was given to educate the school community on hearing impairment. Money was raised for the Oticon Hearing Foundation. The winner of the school wide game was presented a game called "Simon." Students also created posters to support Jack and Harper.

HEYSER FARMS

As their first field trip, Kindergarten visited Heyser Farms. To complement their unit on apples, the students learned about the apple life cycle, the important job bees have at the farm, and what a working apple orchard looks like. Students toured the farm, picked apples, bottled their own apple cider from an old fashioned apple cider press, and enjoyed apple cider donuts made fresh! Kindergarten definitely learned all of the "core" facts about this tasty fall fruit on their field trip!

FOURTH GRADE TO ANNAPOLIS

The fourth grade had a fantastic trip to the Naval Academy last week. The students went to Boot Camp, where they learned how to march and do drills. They also went on a tour of the campus and observed the cadets Noon Formation. They were able to learn about some of the Naval Academy's special traditions, speak with alumni and enjoy lunch in the cafeteria.

CANDIDATE SURVEY RESULTS AVAILABLE

With the 2018 general election just weeks away (November 6), the Maryland Catholic Conference has published the final results of its state-wide candidate surveys. Every major -party candidate for office in Maryland was given the opportunity to respond to five statements that reflect the Church's position on key issues. The surveys asked candidates for state office to agree or disagree with statements on abortion funding, poverty assistance, K-12 education, immigration, and physician-assisted suicide. Candidates for Congress were asked to agree or disagree with statements on conscience protections, poverty assistance, immigration, educational options, and healthcare. All of the candidate responses, along with election information, can be found by visiting: www.mdccatholic.org/elections. Note: The Maryland Catholic Conference does not endorse or oppose any candidate for elected office and no inference of endorsement or opposition should be concluded as a result of the information provided in the surveys.

Register to attend at www.cbnmc.com.

STEWARDSHIP

The phrase in today's psalm, "May you see your children's children," is really a prayer for a long life. The good steward knows that every day is a gift from God, to be lived with joy and thanksgiving. "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives!" (Ps 128)

POPE FRANCIS

"Let us ask the Lord that all parents and educators of the world, as well as the whole of society, make themselves instruments of welcome and of that love with which Jesus embraces the littlest ones. [...] I think of so many children who are hungry, abandoned, exploited, forced into war, rejected. It is heartbreaking to see images of unhappy children, with a bewildered gaze, who flee from poverty and conflicts, knocking at our doors and on our hearts, begging for help. May the Lord help us to be not a society-fortress, but a society-family, able to welcome, with appropriate rules, but to welcome, to always welcome, with love!"

Angelus, Pope Francis, Saint Peter's Square, 4 October 2015.
