

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

FOR THE TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR B

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1194

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 17:6-8

To you I call;
for you will surely heed me, O God;
turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
in the shadow of your wings protect me.

READING I: IS 53:10-11

The conclusion of the great Song of the Servant
which we read on Good Friday.
The one who gives him/herself
as an offering for sin will see the light in fullness of days.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 33

This hymn praises God as creator, sovereign over all the earth,
and savior,
and it views humanity in that light.

READING II: HEB 4:14-16

Jesus meets us in the places of temptation and weakness, suffering with us.
The immensity of Christ's sacrifice enables us to endure to the end, offering our best selves to God.

GOSPEL: MK 10:35-45

To be a disciple—to be baptized—
is to accept the same mission that Jesus accepted,
to give oneself wholly to God's plan.
Transformation happens
through servanthood.
Following Jesus can lead us toward wholeness—
it is a means to grace.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 33:18-19

Behold, the eyes of the Lord
are on those who fear him,
who hope in his merciful love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.

WANTED: GIFT CARDS FOR BAZAAR TREE RAFFLE

Have any extra/unwanted gift cards laying around? The ones sitting the back of a drawer or bottom of a folder that you can't seem to remember to use? Interested persons should contact Dr. Russell Weismann by calling the parish office. An archdiocesan training session for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will take place on Saturday, November 10 from 9:00 am—12:00 pm at St. Michael the Archangel Church in Silver Spring.

EIGHTH GRADE ON RETREAT

The eighth grade students traveled to Camp Maria in Leonardtown, MD, for their annual class retreat. The students engaged in activities aimed at bringing them closer as a class and closer to God. Throughout the two-day retreat, students played and prayed together, forming closer relationships with peers, faculty, and God.

BAKE SALE FOR HEARING

Simon Says is our newest service opportunity at De Chantal! Simon Says was organized by Jack Hill, Harper Dexter, and their families. Both Jack and Harper were born with a loss of hearing. Jack and Harper wanted to bring awareness about hearing difficulties that kids face around the world, and raise money to buy hearing aids for children in need. De Chantal students joined together to raise money for the Oticon Hearing Foundation by selling items at a school-wide bake sale. The school also came together in an assembly to learn more about the Oticon organization and to play a school-wide game of Simon Says—a game where being able to hear is of the utmost importance!

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

De Chantal came together for the annual "Wear Pink and Support Breast Cancer Day." The entire student body and faculty dressed up in pink to raise awareness and remember those affected by breast cancer in our community.

BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH MASS

The Archdiocese of Washington will celebrate Mass in honor of Black Catholic History Month on Saturday, November 10 at 4:30 pm at Mount Calvary Church (6700 Malboro Pike, Forestville). Email culturaldiversity@adw.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP

Good stewards must not argue about who is the most important. Today's Gospel says clearly that those who aspire to greatness must humbly serve the needs of all. Even Jesus came not to be served, but to serve.

WRAP: WHITE RIBBON AGAINST PORNOGRAPHY WEEK

White Ribbon Against Pornography Week will take place October 27 through November 3. Pornography is on the rise, not only because it is easier to access, but because of the lack of awareness about the negative and harmful effects associated with this addictive material. During WRAP Week, fly a white ribbon on your car or mailbox to take a stand for decency. WRAP Week brings together hundreds of national, state, and local groups, along with driven concerned citizens in a massive effort to educate the public. The archdiocesan Office for Family Life provides anti-pornography resources at www.visibleesign.org. Create In Me a Clean Heart, the United States bishops' pastoral response to pornography, can be found at <http://usccb.org/>

SECOND COLLECTION: WORLD MISSIONS

The second collection this weekend, October 20/21, will be the annual collection supporting World Missions, and provides for the building up of over one thousand churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, an area that covers more than half the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy that renews hope and peace. For more information, contact the archdiocesan Office of Missions at 301-853-4527.

POOR BOX

The Poor Box next weekend, October 27/28, will benefit St. Martin's Cloak. In the spirit of St. Martin, who tore his military cloak in half to share with a beggar, St. Martin's Cloak provides financial and other assistance to those in need, particularly those in our parish. Financial assistance is completely confidential. Long term problems are referred to community resources.

Please remember the St. Jane de Chantal School Endowment Fund (CFC # 32653) if you participate in this charitable campaign. The campaign season ends January 11, 2019.
