

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1197

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 105:3-4

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

READING I: JER 31:7-9

The conclusion of the great Song of the Servant
which we read on Good Friday.
The one who gives him/herself
as an offering for sin
will see the light in fullness of days.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 126

This communal lament recalls
God's mighty deeds of the past, especially the restoration of the people from the Exile, and it calls on God
to act once more on behalf of the nation in the current crisis.

READING II: HEB 5:1-6

Jesus is the high priest
of God's mysteries,
conquering sin and saving humanity.
Those called to the priesthood
are given the model of Jesus
of humility and obedience.

GOSPEL: MK 10:46-52

Bartimaeus calls out for help
with the persistence of faith.
The faithful include Bartimaeus in their midst,
attending to his call for mercy.
Persistent faith led him to discipleship,
and his calling for inclusion
reminds us of our own calling.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 20:6

We will ring out our joy
at your saving help
and exult in the name of our God.

POPE FRANCIS

"The prophecy of Jeremiah tells us that the first to want to walk with us is our Father. His "dream", for ever and always, is that of forming a people, of gathering it, of guiding it toward the land of liberty and peace. It is a people that does not exclude the poor and underprivileged, but instead, includes them. It is a family of families, in which one who toils is not marginalized, left behind, but manages to stay in step with the others, because this people walks in step with the least; and as we are taught by the Lord, who made himself poor with the poor, little with the little ones, last with the least."

Pope Francis, Angelus,
