

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP FOR THE THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR B

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1203

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Ps 88:3

Let my prayer come into your presence.
Incline your ear to my cry for help,
O Lord.

READING I: 1 KINGS 17:10-16

A widow, ready to die, shares the little she has
with the prophet and is rewarded with food to sustain her through a drought.

PSALM RESPONSE: Ps 146

The psalmist lists the liberty lessons from God. We can live in a faith that ensures justice, nourishes our souls, and frees us from our sins.

READING II: HEB HEBREWS 9:24-28

The repeated annual sacrifices of the high priest is replaced with the “once and for all” sacrifice of Christ.
This passage both declares a new covenant and describes the act of atonement and sin offering that God both provides and accepts.

GOSPEL: Mk MARK 12:38-44

Mark contrasts Jesus’ condemnation of those who practice religion for show with the widow who offers God all she has.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Ps 23:1-2

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.

A FOND FAREWELL

St. Teresa of Avila has said: "Let nothing disturb you, let nothing frighten you, all things pass away: God never changes. Patience obtains all things. Whoever has God lacks nothing; God alone suffices." It is with a heavy heart that I share with you my decision to leave St. Jane's in order to take on a new opportunity at Georgetown University. Please accept my heartfelt thanks for your support of the music and liturgical ministries at St. Jane's over the past five and a half years. I am grateful to Fr. Giese and to all of our wonderful music and liturgy volunteers for our time working together. Together we strived to manifest the parish's mission that seeks to enable our fellow parishioners to live the life of Jesus Christ and to share their God-given talents for the benefit of each other and of society. I will continue to be with you for several more weeks, but please keep in your prayers an intention for the calling of a new member of our parish staff to carry on the music and liturgical duties of this wonderful parish.

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP: CREDIBLE CATHOLIC SERIES

Come join us for our Fall spiritual series! We will be studying and discussing the "Credible Catholic" series. Through engaging presentations, the series looks to debunk several secular "myths" which drive many away from the Catholic Church. The third session, "Proof of God's Existence from Philosophy," will be held in Caulfield Hall at 7:30 pm this Monday, November 12.

SACRED MUSIC IN A SACRED SPACE

Join us next Sunday, November 18 at 3:00 pm for a free concert featuring music for trombone and organ performed by Jeremy Buckler, trombonist with the National Symphony Orchestra, and Russell Weismann. The concert is free and all are welcome, especially our youngest parishioners who might be learning how to play a brass instrument!

ADVENT GIVING TREE

The Advent Giving Tree program, sponsored by the St. Jane de Chantal Sodality, will begin Thanksgiving weekend, November 24/25. Ornament gift tags will be hung on trees in the gathering space of church. Each tag indicates a gift request from one of the charitable organizations we support; there will be a chart on the digital board listing the charities, the people they serve, and which color /shape tag goes with each charity. Take a tag from one of the trees and return the gift in a gift bag, with the tag attached. Gifts will be collected only during the Saturday vigil and Sunday Masses the weekends of December 1/2 and December 8/9. Gifts should not be left in the church during the week. If you must leave a gift early, please deliver it to the parish office. Giving Tree questions: Denise Sintetos (sintetos@msn.com | 301-807-6199) and Colleen Hadigan (chadigan@aol.com | 301-564-0368).

THE SAINTS GO MARCHING IN

In honor of All Saints Day, the fourth grade students chose saints to research. Each fourth grade student reported on the saint of their choice, and dressed up as their chosen saint for our All Saints Day school Mass. After Mass, the many fourth grade "saints" visited the lower school to share important facts about their saint. It brought the day to life for our school and church. It reminded us that we are all called to be saints!

THIRD GRADE TO THE FARM

Our third grade class recently visited Heyser Farm to celebrate and learn about the harvest season. They learned about composting, apple trees, saw how apple cider is made, went on a tractor ride, and even visited the pumpkin patch!

SPIRIT WEEK

The week of October 29—November 2 was Spirit Week, where students, faculty, and administration celebrated school spirit through Team Tuesday, Freaky Friday, Halloween parties, pajama day, pep rallies, and spirit day games. St. Jane de Chantal students wrapped up Spirit Week by giving back to the community. On the afternoon of Halloween, all students walked around the school to raise money and awareness for Mary House, a community-based organization that provides transitional housing services, shelter, and support programs to homeless and struggling families.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO CAN'T GET TO MASS?

Since 1952, the Archdiocese of Washington has produced a weekly televised Mass for those who are homebound, broadcast from the Crypt Church of the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. It is a wonderful ministry for those members of our Catholic family who are unable to be physically present with a local worshipping community for the Sunday Eucharistic Liturgy. The Mass airs every Sunday at 10:30 am on WDCW-50; no cable, Dish or DIRECTV subscribers: Ch. 50; Comcast: Ch. 23 in Washington, DC and Montgomery County, Ch. 3 in Prince George's County and Southern Maryland; RCN: Ch 15; Verizon: Ch. 3.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE ON TV?

Join the congregation at a taping of the TV Mass! Your presence at the TV Mass is a wonderful way to bring the Mass to those who are homebound. Two Masses are taped on the same evening, from 7:30-8:45pm in the Crypt Church of the Basilica at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception (400 Michigan Ave., NE in Washington, DC). Come for one Mass or stay for both! Upcoming Thursday taping dates are November 8, 15, and 29, and December 2. To receive the free Celebrate! TV Mass newsletter, email communications@adw.org with your mailing address.

JOIN THE CATHOLIC ADVOCACY NETWORK

Maryland's General Assembly session starts in just two months (January 9) and the Maryland Catholic Conference is encouraging anyone who wants to stay informed and get involved on important Catholic issues to sign up for the Catholic Advocacy Network. "We know that a constitutional amendment on abortion will be introduced in 2019, and we know other important bills on physician-assisted suicide, fetal homicide, immigration, human trafficking, education funding and more will be introduced," said Jennifer Briemann, executive director of the Conference. "But we can't let you know what is happening and provide you with an easy way to take action if you aren't part of the Catholic Advocacy Network." The Conference's Catholic Advocacy Network uses email and a simple online system to alert you when action is needed and give you the tools to quickly and easily send a message directly to your legislators. To join, visit www.mdccathcon.org/joincan.

STEWARDSHIP

Both widows in today's readings gave all they had to the work of the Lord, one using all her remaining food to feed Elijah and the other offering her two copper coins to the temple treasury. Faithful stewards give all that is asked and trust the Lord to be faithful to His promises.
