

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

FOR THE THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR B

Readings in Worship hymnal at #1206

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: JER 29: 11, 12, 14

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

READING I: DAN 12:1-3

Even under persecution, the people should continue to hope for deliverance from God. The Archangel Michael was considered the special protector of Israel.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 16

A song of trust in God alone. Psalm 16 was one of the first psalms the early Christian community interpreted as referring to Christ, seeing a clear resurrection theme.

READING II: HEB 10:11-14, 18

Christ has made the perfect "sin offering." Where there is complete forgiveness, there is no need for any additional offering.

GOSPEL: MK 13:24-32

Many people in Jesus' time expected an imminent ending of time, or at least a dramatic ending of the "age" in which they were living. Jesus accepts that expectation, but he calls on his disciples to remain faithful to his teaching, which "shall not pass away" (Isaiah 50:5-9a). One of the "songs of the servant," this poem describes the faithful Israelite (or perhaps the prophet) as one who has suffered for fidelity to God. Despite such suffering, the servant holds true to faith, knowing that the "Lord God is my help."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 73:28

To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish. If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form and drop it in the collection basket when you attend Mass.

SACRED MUSIC IN A SACRED SPACE

Join us this Sunday, November 18 at 3:00 pm for a free concert featuring music for trombone and organ performed by Jeremy Buckler, trombonist with the National Symphony Orchestra, and Russell Weismann. The concert is free and all are welcome, especially our youngest parishioners who might be learning how to play a brass instrument!

MASS OF THANKSGIVING

This Thursday, November 22, is Thanksgiving. The only Mass at St. Jane de Chantal will be celebrated at 11:00 am. The Poor Box on Thanksgiving will benefit St. Martin's Cloak.

ADVENT GIVING TREE

The Advent Giving Tree program, sponsored by the St. Jane de Chantal Sodality, will begin Thanksgiving weekend, November 24/25. Ornament gift tags will be hung on trees in the gathering space of church. Each tag indicates a gift request from one of the charitable organizations we support; there will be a chart on the digital board listing the charities, the people they serve, and which color/shape tag goes with each charity. Take a tag from one of the trees and return the gift in a gift bag, with the tag attached. Gifts will be collected only during the Saturday vigil and Sunday Masses the weekends of December 1/2 and December 8/9. Gifts should not be left in the church during the week. If you must leave a gift early, please deliver it to the parish office. Giving Tree questions: Denise Sintetos (sintetos@msn.com | 301-807-6199) and Colleen Hadigan (chadigan@aol.com | 301-564-0368).

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP: CREDIBLE CATHOLIC SERIES

Come join us for our Fall spiritual series! We will be studying and discussing the "Credible Catholic" series. Through engaging presentations, the series looks to debunk several secular "myths" which drive many away from the Catholic Church. The fourth session, "Proof of Jesus' Resurrection and Divinity," will be held in Caulfield Hall at 7:30 pm on Monday, November 26.

ADVENT WREATH WORKSHOP

Begin Advent by bringing your family and friends together to learn about the Advent wreath and to make a fresh wreath of your own to take home! Register for one of the two workshops to be offered on Sunday, December 2 in Caulfield Hall: at 1:00 pm or 2:30 pm. For $25, you will receive instructions and all of the materials you need to create your own Advent wreath. This is a fun and festive event. All are welcome! Register on-line at <https://membership.faithdirect.net/events/details/2386> by November 28. For more information, contact the Seton Center (seton.center@stjanedechantal.org), or Maureen Bailey (maureenbailey28@gmail.com).

OPEN HOUSE

On November 10, St. Jane de Chantal School welcomed dozens of families to the Fall Open House. Each family was greeted by Mrs. Hamilton and then led on a school tour by a current parent. Many families have since submitted applications for the 2019-20 school year. The next school Open House will be held Monday, January 28, 2019. Plan to join us, and visit our classrooms and meet the teachers.

KINDERGARTEN TO BROOKEVILLE ACADEMY

This week the Kindergarten traveled back in time to the days of the Pilgrims and Wampanoag people at Brookville Academy in historic Brookeville, MD. Students learned about chores from these early pioneers, such as butter churning, milking the cows, pounding cornmeal into flour, washing clothing, and carding the wool. Students learned Native American stories and played a Native American rock game. Everyone agreed they would rather live today, than long ago!

FIFTH GRADE TO MOUNT VERNON

The fifth grade went on its annual trip to Mt. Vernon last week to learn more about George Washington and colonial America. This trip coincides with their study of the founding of the American republic, fight for independence, and founding fathers.

GIRLS VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY STATE CHAMPS

Congratulations to the Varsity girls cross country team for placing first at the MD/DC Private Middle School Championship race in Crownsville, MD last week. ### SEASON FOR HEALING

One of the ways that the Archdiocese of Washington is continuing to accompany survivors is to offer a "One-Day Retreat for Survivors." This "One-Day Retreat for Survivors" is an opportunity for survivors to reflect on God's plan for their lives, healing, and prayer. This day is not therapeutic in nature nor an opportunity for professional counseling, rather it is a day centered on Christ and prayer. The retreat will take place December 1, from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm at a local retreat center. To protect the privacy of those attending the day, the location will not be publicized. There is a brief registration questionnaire; once you complete the questionnaire, ADW staff will personally contact you to discuss further details of the day. The registration PDF and instructions can be found at <https://adw.org/outreach-to-survivors>. Questions, contact Deborah McDonald at mcdonald@adw.org or 301-853-4466.

TOLTON: FROM SLAVE TO PRIEST

Now through Sunday, November 18, the Archdiocese of Washington and the Diocese of Arlington are collaborating to bring the Saint Luke Productions play, Tolton: From Slave to Priest, to Bishop Ireton High School (201 Cambridge Road, Alexandria, VA 22314) for five performances during Black Catholic History Month. The play tells the story of Servant of God Father Augustus Tolton, who journeyed from slavery to become the first African-American Catholic priest. There is no charge for this event, but free-will offerings will be accepted. You may

WALK WITH MARY

The Archdiocese of Washington's annual Walk with Mary procession and Mass to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas, will take place Saturday, December 1 with theme "Under Her Mantle." The procession will start at 11:30 am at the Shrine of the Sacred Heart (6th St. & Park Rd., NW), and will conclude at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception (4th St. & Michigan Ave., NE). Following the praying of the Rosary at 1:00 pm, Mass at the Basilica will begin at 2:30 pm. For more information, visit adw.org/wwm or search on social media using #WalkwithMary.

CHRISTMAS DINNER FOR THOSE IN NEED

The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception will provide meals for hundreds of poor, homeless, elderly, and needy individuals living in the District of Columbia and surrounding areas on Christmas Day. More than one thousand Christmas dinners are served each year in the National Shrine Cafeteria and another thousand are delivered to shut-ins. Volunteers are needed to fill many different positions. DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO CAN'T GET TO MASS?

Since 1952, the Archdiocese of Washington has produced a weekly televised Mass for those who are homebound, broadcast from the Crypt Church of the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. It is a wonderful ministry for those members of our Catholic family who are unable to be physically present with a local worshipping community for the Sunday Eucharistic Liturgy. The Mass airs every Sunday at 10:30 am on WDCW-50; no cable, Dish or DIRECTV subscribers: Ch. 50; Comcast: Ch. 23 in Washington, DC and Montgomery County, Ch. 3 in Prince George's County and Southern Maryland; RCN: Ch 15; Verizon: Ch. 3.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE ON TV?

Join the congregation at a taping of the TV Mass! Your presence at the TV Mass is a wonderful way to bring the Mass to those who are homebound. Two Masses are taped on the same evening, from 7:30-8:45pm in the Crypt Church of the Basilica at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception (400 Michigan Ave., NE in Washington, DC). Come for one Mass or stay for both! Upcoming Thursday taping dates are November 29, December 2, and January 24. To receive the free Celebrate! TV Mass newsletter, email communications@adw.org with your mailing address.

JOIN THE CATHOLIC ADVOCACY NETWORK

Maryland's General Assembly session starts in just two months (January 9) and the Maryland Catholic Conference is encouraging anyone who wants to stay informed and get involved on important Catholic issues to sign up for the Catholic Advocacy Network. A constitutional amendment on abortion will be introduced in 2019, as well as other important bills on physician-assisted suicide, fetal homicide, immigration, human trafficking, education funding. The Conference's Catholic Advocacy Network uses email and a simple online system to alert you when action is needed and give you the tools to quickly and easily send a message directly to your legislators. To join, visit www.mdccathcon.org/joincan.

STEWARDSHIP

*The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the kingdom.
The bishops' pastoral on stewardship says clearly that "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."
May our good stewardship help us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!*
