

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP FOR THE THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR C

Readings in Worship hymnal #1198

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 105:3-4
Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

READING I: SIR 35:12-14, 16-18
What does justice look like today?
Especially in relationship to the poor,
the oppressed, and the abandoned?

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 34
This is the song of an individual giving thanks that God has heard the person’s prayer.

READING II: 2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18
This passage is presented as
St. Paul’s final testament:
He looks forward to receiving
the “crown of righteousness”
because he has remained faithful
in imitation of God’s fidelity.

GOSPEL: LK 18:9-14
The particularly Lucan material
in the travel narrative concludes with two parables on prayer.
The second parable—in today’s Gospel—
condemns the self-righteous,
critical attitude of the Pharisee and
teaches that the fundamental attitude of the Christian disciple must be the recognition of sinfulness and complete dependence on
God’s graciousness.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 20:6
We will ring out our joy
at your saving help
and exult in the name of our God.

CHORAL TEXTS AND TRANSLATIONS

O For a Closer Walk with God.....Charles V. Stanford

O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

Return, O holy dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

(William Cowper, 1731–1800)

Come to Me, Stay With Me .....Pepper Choplin

Come to me from the struggles of humanity.
Come to me, bring the burdens of your soul.
Slow your pace soothe your hurry,
    come now recline, spend holy time with me,
Come to me, I will give you rest.
Come to me, taste my faithfulness.

Bring to me all your love and joyfulness.
Bring to me all your tragedy and pain.
When faith is strong and when your faithfulness
    seems to disappear, still I am here, I call,
Come to me, taste my faithfulness.
Come to me, I will heal and bless. Come to me.

Stay with me through the doubts and uncertainty.
Stay with me, though you want to break away.
Stay with me, even when you want to curse my name,
    still my love remains.
Stay with me, taste my faithfulness.
Stay with me, I will come and bless.
Stay with me, and I will give you strength for every test.
Stay with me, bring all to me,
Come to me and I will give you rest.

(cf. Matthew 11:28)

OLIVE WOOD ART

The Little Bethlehem Christian Group will be present after all Masses next weekend, November 2/3. Little Bethlehem Christian is a group that represents 200 Christian families who live in Bethlehem and make their living as wood carvers. The group, represented by the Alshouri family, will display a collection of hand-carved religious items for sale. The items are carved from the olive wood of the Holy Land, to support and help fund the Christian presence in the Holy Land. For more information on the group and to see samples of their work, visit www.little-bethlehem.org.

SODALITY SPOTLIGHT

The St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Unit is one of the six Sodality units for adult women of the parish. This unit encompasses a diverse range of professional women. Meeting as a unit four times a year, the group's members historically have selected a book or a series of spiritual readings to guide their spiritual discussions together. The ladies enjoy their participation in the many general Sodality events as well to facilitate their seeing each other monthly despite each individual's busy schedule. Through the leadership of unit members, the unit is pleased to organize St. Jane de Chantal Parish's CCD supply drive for the Shrine of the Sacred Heart each September. A heartfelt thank you note was recently received from Sacred Heart's pastor, Rev. Biosca, OFM Cap., and their CCD director, Br. Garcia-Cruz, OFM Cap. In addition to sharing their gratitude to our parish for the assistance it provides them in their task of evangelization, their "catechetical program promises to continue praying for the spiritual and physical needs of" the St. Jane de Chantal community.

VENDORS FOR THE HSA CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

St. Jane de Chantal HSA is busy planning their Christmas Bazaar for Saturday, November 9 (9:00 am—4:00 pm). A few more vendors are needed to sell their fabulous wares. If you or someone you know is interested, email decbazaar@yahoo.com by October 31.

THRIFT SHOP AT THE HSA CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

The Home and School Association is now collecting items for the Thrift Shop at St. Jane de Chantal School's Annual Christmas Bazaar to be held Saturday, November 9. Consider donating your gently used items. There will be two collection times to drop off items: this Sunday, October 27 and next Sunday, November 3 in the lower church parking lot from 11:00 to 11:45 am. HSA can accept a wide variety of items, such as housewares, jewelry, sporting equipment, bikes, books, baby items and toys. They cannot accept clothing, shoes, or incomplete/broken items. If you have items to donate, but can't make these collection times, contact Michelle Flynn at michelledflynn@gmail.com. Proceeds will benefit St. Jane de Chantal School. Any items not sold will be donated.

VOLUNTEER CERTIFICATION UPDATE

To assist with this process, St. Jane de Chantal school and parish are offering one more opportunity for volunteers to complete the volunteer certification process on Saturday, November 16, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm in Caulfield Hall. Pre-registration is required, and is a two-step process: to schedule an appointment and to pre-register with Safe Hire Solutions. Step one, to schedule an appointment on November 16, visit www.signupgenius.com/go/8050848ABAE2AA3F58-virtus. LIVING ROSARY

The eighth grade led the school in saying the Rosary this past week during religion in honor of the Month of the Rosary. October is dedicated as the Month of the Rosary because we celebrate the memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary each year on October 7. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful. The eighth grade students stood in a Rosary formation throughout the church while students began each prayer in the Rosary. The rest of the student body joined in to finish each prayer. It was a beautiful way for the school to celebrate this memorial together.

SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR

De Chantal's 2019 Scholastic Book Fair begins Friday, November 8, at the Hamilton Library in the school, and continues on Monday, November 11 through Friday, November 15. It will also be on center stage at the school bazaar in Christopher Hall on Saturday, November 19. Fiction and non-fiction will fill the shelves of our fair. Be enchanted by new titles covering extraordinary heroes, teen drama, edge-of-your-seat mysteries, scary stories, fantasy, books for gamers, and so much more! Stories for readers from Pre-K to ninth grade, along with favorite authors and series, and books for moms and dads, too, will be available. Fun and unique gifts will dazzle kids of all ages, and be the perfect stocking stuffers for Christmas! Hours of the fair are 9:00 am to 5:30 pm during the week, and 9:00 am to 4:30 pm on Saturday at the bazaar. Holiday gift shopping will be a charmed event at the fair, so make time to visit us and feel beguiled!

INTERNATIONAL WEEK OF PRAYER AND FASTING

The 27th International Week of Prayer and Fasting coalition, in collaboration with the Marian Fathers, Legion of Mary, Priests for Life, and others, are asking for individuals, families, prayer groups, and parishes to unite for nine days of prayer and fasting from November 2-10. The IWOPF brings together people of all ages, backgrounds, and races to pray for an end to the "culture of death," and for a newfound appreciation for basic human rights. The opening international day of prayer will be held Saturday, November 2, from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception (400 Michigan Avenue, NE). The day will include speakers, music, a Procession of the Nations, all-day Eucharistic Adoration, Mass at noon, and the four mysteries of the Rosary. For more information, visit www.iwopf.org or call 888-478-PRAY.

THE CAPITAL OF BASKETBALL BY JOHN MCNAMARA

On Sunday, November 3, Politics and Prose (5015 Connecticut Ave, NW) will host a posthumous book launch for The Capital of Basketball, the final work of John McNamara, Class of '75. Many in our parish family knew John and the McNamara family as fellow parishioners, classmates, and friends over the years, and shared in their grief on his loss following the Annapolis Capital newspaper shooting on June 28, 2018. Please join the family in honoring his life's work, "a story of civil rights heroes and NBA legends [...] history few others could have accomplished, but John, who was born in Washington and never left the area, dedicated his life to it" (Washington Post).

STEWARDSHIP

POPE FRANCIS

"The second reading of the day's Liturgy presents to us Saint Paul's exhortation to Timothy, in which he thinks back on his existence as an Apostle wholly consecrated to the mission. Now seeing the end of his earthly journey, he describes it in reference to three seasons: the present, past, and future. Paul's mission has been effective, just and faithful thanks to the closeness and the strength of the Lord, who has made of him a proclaimer of the Gospel to all peoples: 'the Lord stood by me and gave me strength to proclaim the Gospel fully, that all the peoples might hear it' (cf. v. 17)."

 23 October 2016,
