

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP
FOR THE THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / YEAR C

Readings in Worship hymnal #1201

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PS 38:22-23

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God;
be not far from me!
Make haste and come to my help,
O Lord, my strong salvation!

READING I: WIS 11:22-12:2

God's "love for all things that are"
is revealed especially in care for sinners, whom God rebukes "little by little,"
helping them to change
as a mother corrects a child.

PSALM RESPONSE: PS 145

A hymn in acrostic form; every verse begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew alphabet.
Acrostic poems usually do not develop ideas but consist rather of loosely connected statements,
as in today's psalm verses,
which praise God's fidelity in all things.

READING II: 2 THES 1:11-2:2

Here's how Christians deal with time:
one day at a time,
knowing that God
will bring all things to completion.

GOSPEL: LK 19:1-10

Other people might have dismissed
Zacchaeus as a miserable,
tax-collecting sinner,
but Jesus doesn't,
for "the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: PS 16:11

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
O Lord.

CHORAL TEXTS AND TRANSLATIONS

Amazing Grace Will Todd

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas Grace that taught my heart to fear, And Grace, my fears relieved.
How precious did that Grace appear, The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come;
'Tis Grace that brought me safe thus far and Grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me. His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be, As long as life endures.

The eath shall soon dissolve like snow, The sun forbear to shine;
But God, who call'd me here below, Will be for ever mine.

(John Newton, 1725–1807)

The Best of Rooms Gerald Near

Christ, He requires still,
wheresoe'er He comes to feed or lodge,
to have the best of rooms:
Give Him the choice;
Grant Him the nobler part of all the house:
the best of all's the heart.

(Robert Herrick, 1591–1674)

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Jane de Chantal Parish welcomes those who have recently registered in our parish. If you attend Mass at St. Jane Frances de Chantal regularly, we encourage you to register as a member. Please complete a registration form and drop it in the collection basket when you attend Mass.

OLIVE WOOD ART

The Little Bethlehem Christian Group will be present after all Masses this weekend, November 2/3. Little Bethlehem Christian is a group that represents 200 Christian families who live in Bethlehem and make their living as wood carvers. The group, represented by the Alshouri family, will display a collection of hand-carved religious items for sale. The items are carved from the olive wood of the Holy Land, to support and help fund the Christian presence in the Holy Land. For more information on the group and to see samples of their work, visit www.little-bethlehem.org.

GARDEN GROUP CENTERPIECE WORKSHOP

The garden group welcomes all parishioners to a centerpiece arrangement workshop this Wednesday,

AND THIS TRICKSTER CALLS ON OUR PASTOR EVERY MONTH!

The second collection next weekend will be our monthly collection to help with the repair and maintenance of our parish facilities. The Maintenance Collection in October (as of 10/27) totaled $6,873.75. THANK YOU!

November 6, 6:00-7:30 pm, in Caulfield Hall. Bring clippers and wire clippers for cutting the dried garden material and silk flowers used in the centerpieces. Everything else will be provided. All of the centerpieces will be donated to Shepherd's Table for their Thanksgiving dinner. Contact Eve Marie (evemarie301@gmail.com) for more information.

PRO-LIFE CHRISTMAS CARDS

The Pro-Life Committee will have Christmas cards available after Masses next weekend, November 9/10. Proceeds benefit Right to Life of Montgomery County.

MASS FOR THOSE BURIED FROM ST. JANE PARISH

On Wednesday, November 13, at 7:00 pm, we will celebrate a Solemn Requiem Mass in Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed of our parish from the past year. All are invited to attend, especially family members and friends of the deceased of our parish.

VOLUNTEER CERTIFICATION UPDATE

The Archdiocese of Washington Child Protection Policy requires volunteers who have not been fingerprinted, as part of an ADW criminal background report, to be fingerprinted by January 2020. To assist with this process, St. Jane de Chantal school and parish are offering one more opportunity for volunteers to complete the volunteer certification process on Saturday, November 16, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm in Caulfield Hall. Pre-registration is required, and is a two-step process: to schedule an appointment and to pre-register with Safe Hire Solutions. Step one, to schedule an appointment on November 16, visit www.signupgenius.com/go/8050848ABAE2AA3F58-virtus. Step two, to pre-register with Safe Hire Solutions, visit <https://secure.safehiresolutions.com/livescan-pre-registration-application>. Cost is $55 per person; payment by check (must be payable to Safe Hire Solutions) or cash (no credit cards accepted). The session will be conducted by LiveScan Fingerprinting, which will send criminal background reports directly to the archdiocesan child protection office.

SACRED MUSIC IN A SACRED SPACE

On Sunday, November 24, at 3:00 pm, renowned organist and teacher, Kimberly Marshall will be performing a program of music from six centuries for St. Cecelia's Day. Dr. Marshall has performed all over the world and is often sought out for her expertise on early organ works, as well as French Classic and Romantic works. You can hear some of her performing at www.kimberlymarshall.com. Admission is free. All are welcome.

REMEMBER IN PRAYER

. . . those who are sick, and all those in our nursing homes and hospitals, especially John and Pat Krisko, Pierre Benjamin, Leonard Moreno, and Champa Soyza.

IN OUR LITURGY & MUSIC MINISTRIES

Visit the Music Ministries page at www.stjanedechantal.org/ministries/music-ministry for information on the many music ensembles at St. Jane.

IN OUR FAITH FORMATION PROGRAMS

Visit the Faith Formation page at www.stjanedechantal.org for information on the various programs, registration forms and calendars.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: HALL MONITORS

We are in need of hall monitors during faith formation classes on Tuesday evenings. If interested, contact Mark Diamond at mark.diamond@stjanedechantal.org.

IN OUR BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL

Check out the St. Jane de Chantal School website at www.dechantal.org to get information on admissions, see what each classroom is studying, and more.

SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR

De Chantal's 2019 Scholastic Book Fair begins Friday, November 8, at the Hamilton Library in the school, and continues on Monday, November 11 through Friday, November 15. It will also be on center stage at the school bazaar in Christopher Hall on Saturday, November 9. Stories for readers from Pre-K to ninth grade, along with favorite authors and series, and books for moms and dads, too, will be available. Fun and unique gifts will dazzle kids of all ages, and be the perfect stocking stuffers for Christmas! Hours of the fair are 9:00 am to 5:30 pm during the week, and 9:00 am to 4:30 pm on Saturday at the bazaar.

THEATRE PRODUCTION

Recently, the middle school attended Holy Cross Academy's dress rehearsal of Matilda. It was an outstanding rendition of this timeless Roald Dahl classic. Students were excited to see so many St. Jane de Chantal alumnae in the production. This will help prepare sixth-graders as they take to the stage this year to present Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory.

BALTIMORE ZOO

The Baltimore Zoo Animal Ambassadors came to visit the third and fourth grades, and brought their animals with them! The zoo keepers brought a raven, a tenrec, a tarantula, and a skunk! Students learned about the animals' characteristics, habitats, and why they are important members of our environment. Students loved seeing the animals up close, and, as a bonus, they received free passes to the Baltimore Zoo!

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

De Chantal came together for the annual "Wear Pink and Support Breast Cancer Day." The entire student body and faculty dressed up in pink to raise awareness and remember those affected by breast cancer in our community. Thank you to Mrs. Maxwell for organizing this annual event.

ANNUAL HSA HALLOWEEN PARTY

The HSA sponsored another fabulous Halloween Party for all of the little witches and goblins of St. Jane de Chantal. There were games, prizes, pizza, soft pretzels, fortune tellers, a circus-themed haunted house, and a Halloween dance party! Special thanks to Judy Sadler, Catherine Tomscheck, and Anna McCord for making this special event such a success and so much fun!

IN OUR ARCHDIOCESE

For more information on vocations, education, family, youth, social concerns, & other events in the Archdiocese of Washington, visit www.adw.org. The website also has a media center, which includes social media tools, a YouTube channel, and apps.

NOVEMBER IS BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

This month, we honor the men and women from Africa who have pioneered the faith! Many forget that Christianity didn't start in Europe. Black Catholics have had a huge impact on the history and traditions of Christianity. The Church has been celebrating Black Catholic History Month since 1990. November is appropriate because it holds special days for two prominent African Catholics: St. Augustine whose birthday is November 13, and St. Martin de Porres whose feast day is celebrated on November 3. Three popes—Saints Victor I, Melchiades, and Gelasius I—were born in Africa and led the early church through much turmoil. There are also many Black Catholic saints (Monica of Hippo, Augustine of Hippo, Perpetua, and Felicitas, to name a few), and leaders (such as Rev. Augustus Tolton and Daniel Rudd) whose actions and witnesses of faith helped shape the church into what it is today.

BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH LITURGY

The archdiocesan Office of Cultural Diversity and Outreach will host a liturgy on Saturday, November 9, at Holy Family Church (2210 Calloway Street, Hillcrest Heights). The afternoon will begin at 3:30 pm with Praise and Worship led by the archdiocesan Gospel Mass Choir. Following at 4:00 pm, a vigil Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Mario Dorsonville, with Rev. Anthony Bozeman, SSJ, homilist. For more information, email culturaldiversity@adw.org.

HIGH SCHOOL QUO VADIS COME AND SEE RETREAT

Young men in grades 11 and 12 are invited to Saint John Paul II Seminary Friday, November 8 – Sunday, November 10, to experience seminary life firsthand. This is an opportunity to meet and talk to our seminarians, pray with them, listen to great talks, and enjoy time for sports and recreation. To register, visit www.dcpriest.org/quo-vadis-come-and-see-2019. Call the Office of Priest Vocations at 202-636-9020 or email Fr. Mark Ivany at vocations@adw.org with any questions.

ENTERING CANAAN DAY OF PRAYER AND HEALING

Having unresolved feelings about your abortion experience? Returning guilt, shame, regret, or sadness? You just don't feel forgiven? Come to an "Entering Canaan Day of Prayer and Healing" on Saturday, November 23, 9:00 am to 5:30 pm. Sponsored by Project Rachel Ministry. Location and contacts are confidential due to the personal nature of this experience. For more information and to register, call 301-982-2008 or email hope@adw.org.

RETREAT FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS

The Washington DC Catholic Medical Association will hold their annual half-day retreat on Saturday, November 23. The CMA is a group of Catholic physicians, nurses, and other healthcare professionals who are committed to living the Catholic faith in the science and practice of medicine. To learn more, join their mailing list by sending a message to dc.cma.guild@gmail.com.

STEWARDSHIP

We are called to be good stewards of our personal vocations. St. Paul's prayer for the Thessalonians is therefore ours, too — "that our God may make us worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith" (2 Thes 1:11).

SECOND COLLECTION: ARCHDIOCESAN RETIRED PRIESTS

This year's retired priests collection will take place this weekend, November 2/3 in all parishes of the archdiocese. Continuing Christ's mission, archdiocesan priests have selflessly served the faithful and the community for decades. Let's join together to help to provide care and housing for our retired priests so they can live in dignity. Thank you for your generosity!

POOR BOX

The Poor Box next weekend, November 9/10, will benefit Bethesda Cares, which helps place people living unsheltered into permanent, supportive housing; eases life for those sleeping on the street; and keeps low-income tenants from eviction. Bethesda Cares also provides a meal program, clothing closet, prescription assistance, and psychiatric services.

Please remember the St. Jane de Chantal School Endowment Fund (CFC # 32653) if you participate in this charitable campaign. The campaign season ends January 12, 2020.

POPE FRANCIS

"Sometimes we try to correct or convert a sinner by scolding him, by pointing out his mistakes and wrongful behaviour. Jesus' attitude toward Zacchaeus shows us another way: that of showing those who err their value, the value that God continues to see in spite of everything, despite all their mistakes. This may bring about a positive surprise, which softens the heart and spurs the person to bring out the good that he has within himself. [...] This is how God acts with all of us: he is not blocked by our sin, but overcomes it with love and makes us feel nostalgia for the good."

Pope Francis, angelus,
 30 October 2016,
 Saint Peter's Square.
